ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledgement/thanksgiving is the antidote for an ego intoxicated with the wine of success-apparent, experienced from an accomplishment in an endeavor. Expressing gratitude is not remembering someone, as remembering necessarily implies an element of having forgotten that one. It is neither appeasement nor is it flattery; it is the necessary expression of a heart humbled by the majesty of another’s manifestations in form of selfless service, support, aid and assistance. Humbled so I’m by the contribution of kind, considerate and competent men and women to this work of mine.

Present work is the culmination of ceaseless supervision by Prof. Pravin Saxena, my guide/supervisor (Department of Accountancy & Law) Faculty of Commerce to this work. His incessant support to the cause of academics and commitment for the same has been my inspiration and it is my earnest desire that he continues to inspire the generations of student under the aegis D.E.I.

Prof. S.P. Kaushik – Head (Department of Applied Business Economics) Faculty of Commerce was the help required in hours of need. His presence had been enough to see me through the ‘rainy days’. The support systems accorded by him and his timely valuable advices have caused the completion of this work of mine without hassles and within time.

Prof. Pramod Kumar- Dean (Faculty of Commerce) & Head (Department of Accountancy & Law) could be approached mindless of hour and place if required. His knowledge of the nitty-gritty of procedural aspects of system and operations helped me to ensure the technical compliances where required.

Dr. Saurabh Mani (Sr. Lect. Department of Applied Business Economics) Faculty of Commerce had been instrumental in providing the necessary statistical results which form the very basis of this work and in absence where of this work could not have been taken to its logical ends. My gratitude in respect of the support provided by him.

Dr. Sanjay Jain (Sr. Lect. St. Johns College, Agra) had been critical in assessment of the present work and was therefore instrumental in removal of anomalies and errors occasioned at times.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr. L.N. koli, Dr. P.D. Saini, Dr. Nidhi Sharma (The Faculty Teachers) who have helped me in various miscellaneous tasks.

My sincere thanks to the entire Library staff who had been diligently providing me with the required references.

My colleagues, friends and co-scholars, whom I had taken for granted- Dr. Nitin Saxena,
Mr. Sumit Samtani, Mr. Arun Kumar, Ms Vartika Verma, Ms. Sharmishta Rawat and Ms
Nutan Chauhan, require special mention as they were the ones responsible for keeping me calm, composed and patient throughout this journey.

Sh. H.C.Singh (The Assistant General Manager, S.B.I. Sansad Margh, Delhi) was kind enough to provide me with requisite data which had been worked upon in this thesis.

I would like to express my gratitude to my loving Husband; Sh. Nipun Awasthi (Metropolitan Magistrate, Delhi). He is the person who has supported me psychologically whenever I have needed. His constant encouragement led me to progress.

My sincere and heartfelt thanks to one and all who stood by me in this humble effort of mine.

Date: Smriti Sharma

Research Scholar