ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the end of my long journey in obtaining my degree and I have not travelled in vacuum. There are some people who made this journey easier with words of encouragement and more intellectually satisfying by offering different places to look to expand my theories and ideas.

First of all, a very special thanks to my guide Dr. P.C. Sharma, Professor Microbiology, Faculty of Biotechnology, Shoolini University, Bajhol, Solan with his enthusiasm, inspiration and his great efforts to explain things clearly and simply, he helped to make Microbiology fun for me. Throughout my thesis writing period, he provided encouragement, sound advice, good teaching, good company, blessings and lots of good ideas. I would have been lost without him. Truly he is a best teacher as said by Vivekananda: a good teacher is a friend, philosopher and guide.

At the outset I would like to acknowledge my sincere thanks to Professor P.K. Khosla, Vice Chancellor, Shoolini University, Solan for providing necessary facilities to carry out this piece of work.

I would like to extend my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Adesh Kumar Saini and Dr. Astha Tripathi, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Biotechnology for their encouragement and sound advice.

My sincere thanks also go to Mrs. Sharma for her moral support and kind blessing. Thank you so much mam.

I would like to thank Dr. Anil Kanga, Professor and Head Department of Microbiology and Dr. Vinay Shankar, Professor and Head Department of Dermatology, IGMC Shimla and Dr. Vinay Patyal, Skin Specialist, Regional Hospital, Solan for their kind support and help in collection of clinical samples.
At this junction, I also owe my regards to non teaching technical staff, especially Mr. Dalip Kumar and Mr. Babu Ram (Lab Attendants Microbiology lab) for their assistance and co-operation.

I am indebted to my many colleagues for providing a stimulating and fun environment in which to learn and grow especially, Dr. Devender, Dr. Amit, Mrs. Ruchi and a long list to put on.

I wish to give a special thanks to Himika for always with me and source of my inspiration.

I also extend my grateful thanks to my Bhaiya and Bhabi ji for their constant valuable support. Also, I miss my nephew Manit who also missed my love at home during this journey.

Before reaching my destination, I bow down my head before my beloved Parents with all the reverence whose blessings have solely contributed to reach this point.

On the recollection of so many and great favors and blessings, I now, with a high sense of gratitude, presume to offer up my sincere thanks to the Almighty, the Creator and the Preserver. He was always with me, all the way in this journey and I believe the same in future.
