ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I thank the Almighty for showering lot of her blessings for making me fortunate and strength to resolve my dream come true. The undertaking of a Ph. D. is not the lonely work it is often believed to be. Rather the opposite, a doctoral dissertation typically relies on the help and encouragement of many. It is a pleasure to thank those many people who made this thesis possible.

First and foremost I am extremely grateful to my advisor Dr.P.Gurumoorthi for his constant inspiration and guidance. It has been an honor to be with him as a first Ph.D. student at SRM University. I appreciate all his contributions of time, ideas and funding to make my Ph.D. experience productive and stimulating. The joy and enthusiasm he has for research was contagious and motivational for me, even during tough times in the Ph.D. pursuit. I am also grateful to him for the freedom of thought, experimentation, and interaction with other people.

I sincerely owe my thankfulness to Dr. C. Muthamizhchelvan, Director E & T. Dr. M. Vairamani, Dean, School of Bioengineering, SRM University for their support and encouragement in provided the necessary facility to carry out my doctoral studies.

I am thankful to Dr. M.M.Srinivas Bharath, Professor, National Institute of Mental Health Sciences (NIMHANS), Bangalore, India for this inspiration suggestions and providing me an opportunity to making available the Department facilities at Neurochemistry. My thanks go in particular to Dr. Mythri, Mr. Raghu and Mr. Harish who shared ideas and assist with recruitment of research participants and for the support, constant encouragement extended throughout the investigation. I would like to thank Mr. G. Ariharasivakumar for their constant support and encouragement to improve my In vivo research work.

I thank Dr.K.Jandharanan, Professor, Department of Biotechnology, PITAM, Chennai, Dr.G.A. Ravishankar, Scientist, Central Food Technological Research Institute, Mysore and Dr.M.A Subbarayan, Professor and Head, Department of Computer Applications, SRM University for sharing lots of ideas, insightful comments and hard questions as my doctoral committee member to improve my research work.

I am thankful to Dr.E.Sumathi and Dr B. Janarthanan, Poonga Biotech Research center, Chennai, India for the suggestions in part of my research work.

I would like to extend my thankfulness to my beloved faculties of Department of Food Process Engineering, K.A. Athmaselvi Head in charge of Food process, Mrs.N.Manimehalai, Miss B. Priya, Mrs. V. Nithyalakshmi, Mrs. P. Geetha, Mr. M. Mahesh Kumar, Mrs. S. Sasikala, Dr. Periyar selvam and R.Padmavathi for many rounds of discussions and providing valuable suggestion on my project. My thanks are extending to all the staff members of Department of Food Process Engineering for their constant support and encouragement.
