ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset let me take this opportunity to acknowledge the grace of Lord Shri Swaminarayan, without which this work could not have been successfully accomplished.

This study would not have seen the light of this day without the cooperation and assistance of a number of individuals and organisations. I take this opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to them. The study would not have seen the light of the day without the support, opportunity and environment provided by the Business Studies Department in all respect since the beginning of my study.

Let me express my most sincere thanks, appreciation and gratitude to my research guide Professor Dr. M. K. Patel, of Postgraduate Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidhyanagar. I am highly indebted to him for his continuous and invaluable efforts in going through the thesis and in suggesting the proper methods to be followed for the betterment of the work. I express my heartfelt thanks to him for the guidance provided to me in the midst of his busy schedule and for his inspiring and continued support. He has not only motivated me to complete this research work but also generated continuous process of research-oriented thinking within myself. I am indeed very grateful to him.
I am happy to gratefully acknowledge the management staff of Power Industry and other employees of responding organizations for their full support, personal as well as administrative. I also thank the respondents who spared time to respond to my lengthy questionnaire, meticulously. I owe not merely formal thanks but a grateful acknowledgement of their outright obligation to me.

I also express gratitude towards the respected Bhaikaka Library Staff of Sardar Patel University of Vallabh Vidhyanagar.

My sincere thanks are to all the faculty members and other staff members of the P. G. Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidhyanagar and to my faculty colleagues of Anand Mercantile College of Science, Management and Computer Technology, Anand.

I take this opportunity to thank Dr. Pravinaben N. Pandya of P.G.Department (Commerce), Dr.Subhash Mahila Arts, Commerce & Home Science College, Junagadh for her affectionate and expert counseling that proved to be of immense help to me to initiate my work.

I am also thankful to many authors of various books which helped me in my study.

My sincere thanks are to my parents, who has not only motivated me to complete my research work in time, but also generated continuous support from the beginning of research-oriented thinking within myself. I am indeed very grateful to them.
My profound thanks are to all the members of my family, especially my wife and my sister for their moral support, which contributed significantly for my ultimate accomplishments.

I am deeply grateful to all who have helped me directly or indirectly to complete this study.
