ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A bird cannot fly without its wings similarly human beings cannot develop without a sensible touch of other human beings. To reach at the highest peak, expert’s assistance is necessary.

The present study could not have been in its present shape without the cooperation of my family members from whom I have received unconditional love and support. Heartfelt thanks to my greatest source of inspiration, my father, Mr. Mahendrabhai and my mother Mrs. Purnimaben who made me capable of taking up such academic pursuit.

The research guide is the moonlight for the researcher who always shows the right path to the researcher. The words are insufficient while saying thanks to my research guide. I feel privileged to acknowledge my indebtedness and deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. R. M. Diwan, whose tireless industry, sincere and proper guidance, constructive suggestions and constant help in this work was a great source of encouragement to me. Her systematic way of working and motivating nature inspired me to put my best efforts. I am really thankful to her who touched to my personal life as well and played a vital role in shaping my career. M. K. Gandhiji said that the teacher must perform his/her duty as a mother teacher and my guide is one of the best examples for that.

I wish to record my sincere thanks to Prof. Pallaviben Patel, Head of the Department of Education, Sardar Patel University who allowed me to undertake this study and permitted me to make the optimum use of the facilities at the department. She is one of the best personalities to sensitize and expand emotional intelligence of the people.
It is my privilege to carry out research from the Sardar Patel University. A well known university not only in Gujarat but also in other states of the country and at abroad as well. I am thankful to the university who has registered me as a Ph.D. student to carry out research in the field of Education.

I am thankful to Charutar Vidya Mandal and Head of the Institute Prof. Sulabha Natraj, Waymade College of Education who permitted me to schedule the activities of the programme in the Annual Calendar of the college during the academic year 2011-2012.

I am very much thankful to my colleagues at Waymade College of Education for their untiring behavior and constant support for my research.

I am also thankful to the Professors at the Dept. of Education. Prof. M. K. Yagnik, Prof. M. A. Chotalia, Prof. K.S. Likhia, Prof. A. B. Kagathala and Retd. Prof. V. D. Mogaria who have ays motivated me and blessed me for my academic progress.

I also thank to all the experts who gave their valuable suggestions for the Sensitivity Measurement Situational Test and Sensitivity Development Programme.

I also thank to all the B.Ed. Student-teachers of Waymade College of Education of the academic year 2011-2012 who have enthusiastically participated in the activities and cooperated me to carry out this research. May God bless them!

Dr. Rakesh Ranjan, This is he who motivated me to carry out this research and rendered his expertise in almost all the steps of the research. He always behaves with me as my elder brother and I wish I would have one such brother in my next birth.
I also thank to my friends Gajraj Rathod, Dipali Gandhi, Ashish Hiwale, Keval Thaker, Riken Soni, Rashesh Kachiya and Margi Pancholi who constantly helped me in completion of my research work.

Above all, I thank God, for his kind blessings and I very respectfully dedicate this humble work to his Lotus Feet as an offering unto him.

Mr. Chirag Darji
