Acknowledgements

This thesis is the culmination of a period of Direct Ph.D research which was undertaken in the discipline of political geography at Jawaharlal Nehru University. I would like to take this opportunity to express my large intellectual debt to, Prof. R.C. Sharma (Supervisor) for his inspiration, criticism and encouragement.

Grateful acknowledgements are made to the staff of the following for their co-operation and help in collecting my research material:

6. American Centre Library, New Delhi.
8. Ratan Tata library, Delhi University, New Delhi.

In addition, I would like to thank, Mr. & Mrs. Mitra of 'Fusion Asia' Magazine for their prolong discussions and suggestions, Dr. Kanti Bajpai of Jawaharlal Nehru University, for offering new insight into the study. My thanks also to Mr. Ajit Prasad for sending material not available in India all the way from London. Thanks are also due to Ritambara for discussion at various protracted stages of my studies completion.

I take this opportunity to thank Mr. Damle for doing map work and diagrams. Mr. Anil of A.P. Computers for typing the manuscript and his colleagues, Darmendar, Unni and Shibu.

I would also like to thank the following for their help: Chanda, Ranjeeta, Pampa, Milly, Tumpa, specially Rashmi for helping me in proof reading, Subash, Shayamlal and Deepak for helping me in all the odd jobs. Special thanks to Ms. Mukherjee for all the love and affection.

I take this opportunity to thank Janab Musa Nizami ‘Pirshab’ of Harzart Nizamuddin Auliya Dargah for his blessing.

I am indebted to my family members my sister Uzma, my brother Hasan Masood and sister in law Sabina, and my great parents for all they have done for me and for being a great moral strength against all odds.

My very especial thanks to dear Uncle J.L. Devichand, who has been my greatest source of strength, but for his sustained moral and material support the work could never have been completed.
