the teachings of Radhasoami faith as in Govind Kaul's lilas and to lead the followers along the spiritual path to salvation. While this manifest function is obvious and remains the same in the new place as in their native setting. Providing the bulwark is the latent function of this sect and from the point of view of a sociologist, is equally important.