Acknowledgement

I would like to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to several people for the successful completion of this research project. First and foremost, I am deeply indebted to my guide for research Dr. Nasreen Rustomfram, Professor, Centre for Lifelong Learning Tata Institute of Social Sciences, for her valuable guidance, insightful suggestions for data analyses and explanations provided for findings of this research. I also thank our DAC members and the research methodology experts in research for their timely help to finalize the tool for this research and data interpretation.

I wish to thank Dr. Dilip S. Patil, Director of Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension, University of Mumbai for providing me unconditional support and encouragement at various stage of this research.

I also wish to express my sense of gratitude to my colleague Dr. Mohankumar C. Kaimal for his untiring assistance for this research without which the research would not have been conducted so smoothly.

Similarly, I also wish to thank the Principals of B. Ed. colleges for granting permission to collect data for this research. I also wish to express thanks to all the students for spending their valuable time for filling up the tools of this research. Thanks are due to the support staff of the Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension for their timely help in collecting the data for this research and entering it into the computer for further analyzing and documentation for this research.
My heartfelt thank to the staff of the Doctoral Students Office, Library of TISS and the staff of Centre for Lifelong Learning, TISS and University of Mumbai for their help for this research.

Last but not the least; I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to my mother, my wife Ragini and my son Dikshant for their overwhelming and unqualified support in carrying out this work.

Kunal D. Jadhav