ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Working on the Ph.D. has been a wonderful and often overwhelming experience. It is hard to say whether it has been grappling with the topic itself which has been the real learning experience, or grappling with how to write papers and proposals, work in a group, and stay focused. Completing a PhD is truly a marathon event, and I would not have been able to complete this journey without the aid and support of countless people.

I must first express my deepest sense of gratitude and everlasting respect to my research advisor, Prof. Pradeep T. Deota, Head, Applied Chemistry Department, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, for his invaluable guidance, fruitful discussions, strictly scientific attitude and humane understanding throughout the research. He encouraged me to never accept anything short of my personal best in my research. He has been a steady influence throughout my Ph.D. career; he has oriented and supported me with promptness and care, and has always been patient and encouraging in times of new ideas and difficulties; he has listened to my ideas and discussions which frequently led to key insights. His ability to select and to approach compelling research problems, high scientific standards, and hard work set an example. I admire his ability to balance research interests and personal pursuits. I thank him for his guidance, strong support and the chance he gave me to work as a research student under his supervision.

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the help, co-operation, continuous support, suggestions, encouragement and involvement rendered by my group colleagues Mr. Gautam M. Patel, Mr. Umesh V. Chaudhari and Dr. Hemant Parmar during my Ph.D. work.

I would like to thank Dean, Faculty of Technology and Engineering, The M. S. University of Baroda, for providing the facilities for research.

One cannot forget the strength and support that one gets from their family. I feel a tremendous paucity of words to explicate my fortuity for unconditional love, sacrifices, invigorating inspiration and earnest care provided by my parents, Mr. Sardar Singh and Mrs. Kantee Singh, throughout the period of toil, turmoil and tribulations. I am enormously privileged to have parents that have given their all to and are as invested in my educational achievements as I am. They have been instrumental in my journey from infancy, and I know this is as much a victory for them as it is for me. I feel extremely proud to have achieved our dream. There are no suitable words to convey my regards to my uncle, Dr. Ram Shankar Singh, and aunt Mrs. Deepti Singh for their selfless affection, support, forever implicit and heartfelt well wishes and blessings. I also need to thank my younger brother Mr. Rahul Singh and younger sister Ms. Neha Singh for their encouragement, support and incessant help at the time of need. I also acknowledge and admire the love, confidence and moral support bequeathed to me by members in my family Mr. Randhir Singh, Mr. Chandra Prakash Singh, Mr. Ajay Singh, Mr. Havaldar Singh, Mrs. Reetu Singh, Mrs. Gudia Singh, Mrs. Urmila Singh, Prince Singh, Maneesh Singh, Saurabh Singh, Pratnesh Singh, Utsav Singh, Madhu Singh, Ruchi Singh without whose affection, the present endeavor would have remained an unrealized dream.
