Acknowledgement

With setting up stone, the research gives me an opportunity to whole heartedly pay thanks to everybody and everything without which establishment of the research and achieving its aims and goals was not possible.

First and foremost, I want to express my sincere gratitude to my teacher and guide. It is my proud opportunity and utmost duty to express my sincere thanks to my teacher and research guide Dr. K. C. Ramotra, underwhose talented and scholarly supervision, I am lucky enough to complete this research task. His constant encouragement and methodical guidance is helped me to do this research work with utmost accuracy and within stipulated time. During this research work I have learned several things from him, which will help me throughout my life. His attitude towards work, vision, and exactness is unique, which helped me to accomplish my research scientifically. I am very much lucky who got an opportunity of working under guidance of such a perfectionist.

I am also thankful to Dr. J. B. Chaugule Retired Principal, Miraj Mahavidyalaya Miraj for the constant support and valuable guidance to me. It is he who has been the source of inspiration and stimulus to me since my student hood. I would ever remember the valuable moments I spent with him during my studies and learned things from him. His positive words facilitate me to conduct this research work.

I owe my thanks to Dr. M. G. Jadhav Former Head, Department of Geography, Shivaji University Kolhapur. His cordial treatment, kind and enthusiastic words gave me energy to work constantly. The treatment he has given after the retirement also was personal, human and far from being formal. His subject knowledge has directed me on proper track and helped me a lot.
I am greatly thankful to Mr. Vishwas Sarnobat, Managing Director, AND Data India Pvt. Ltd. Pune, who has extended all possible help, support and co-operation during this work.

I express my thanks to Dr. C.T. Pawar, Dr. K.S. More, Shri. S.K. Wodyar (Pawar), Dr. D.H. Pawar, Mr. Prashant Patil, Mr. Y. S. Mote and to all my teachers from Shivaji University for their valuable guidance and help during this work. I am equally thankful to all the staff members, research scholars and non-teaching staff of Dept. of Geography, Shivaji University for their assistance and support.

I also express my honest thanks to my all teachers throughout academic days which has great impact on my life and career. Because of their right guidance and direction I could reach certain position. I wish all students get such kind of teachers to guide them on right path.

I would like to thank Dr. Shrikrishna B. Gaikwad (Miraj Mahvaiyalaya, Miraj), Mr. Ratnadeep Jadhav (Willingdon College, Sangli), Dr. S. D. Shinde (Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Satara), Dr. Shivajirao B. Gaikwad (Dr. Patangrao Kadam Mahavidyalaya, Sangli), Dr. B. A. Chougule (Rtd. Head, Agri. Research Satiation, Kasabe Digraj) who encouraged and helped me in one way or the other to complete this work.

It is my duty to express the thanks to all my colleagues, project managers, Department Heads, team members and friends from AND Data, who was always behind me during this work. Also I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Mr. V. Ramachandran, Karisidh Khot, Malatesh Patreemarad, Nitin Pawar, Vijay Naiknaware, Samadhan Shinde, who was always with me being supportive and unconditional friendship.

I owe my gratitude to the authorities and staff of Divisional Agricultural Office Pune, Miraj Thesildar Office, Panchyat Officials Miraj, Zilla Parishad staff and officials of Krishan-Koyna Irrigation Department, Waranali, for providing me valuable information and help. I am also very much thankful to Mr. Bharmu Koli, Agricultural Officer Mr. Bhosale, Nakul Jakate, Municipal Corporation officials, Mr. S. D. Rathod, Agri. Research Station, Kasabe Digraj and the Thalathi and Kotwals of Villages particularly Mr. Parsu Omase (Malgaon), Ananda Patil (Arag), N.S. Mali (Bedag), Mr. Hange (Kasabe Digraj), V.K. Kale (K. Piran), Mrs. Kadam (Tung), for the possible assistance and support.

I owe very much to the village farmers and residents who co-operated and helped me while carrying out the field work. I am thankful to the respondents who have given information and share their views during the survey. I am also greatly thankful to all my friends from Miraj, Kupwad and Sangli who have helped a lot during data collection.

It is my pleasure to thank my parents without them my progress and existence is incomplete. I am greatly thankful to all my family members who are indeed special people and always behind me, because of them only I could able to reach some destination. Also the devoted co-operation and help received from my wife Savita is wordless. All of them encouraged me and given all kind of support during my education, research work and throughout life.

Last but not least I am indebted to tank all my well-wisher, supportive friends whose name is not mentioned unknowingly or by mistake.

Finally thanks to the God, with his divine wisdom the gift of discernment was granted to me. The perpetual guidance and source of strength during my work period and life is enlightened by him.
