I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr. S. P. Rathor for his guidance and encouragement throughout the course of this work.

I also thank Professor Dr. Volker Lüderitz, Dean of School of Water Management, University of Applied Sciences at Magdeburg, Germany for inviting me to the University, for organizing my meetings with various experts in the field and for providing me full support during my stay in Germany. Thanks are also due to Mr. Stefan Lucas-Thorp, the Secretary of UVP-Gesellschaft e.V. (Environmental Impact Assessment Society, Hamm, Germany) for assisting me in collection of information regarding the functioning of EIA processes in Germany and for organizing my participation in Summer school held at Bremen, in Germany. I would also like to thank Dr. Ing. Wolfgang Wende, Research Associate at the Institute of for Environmental Planning, Department of Landscape Planning and Environmental Impact Assessment of Technische Universität (Technical University) Berlin; Dr. Jochen Zeiger of the Chamber of Commerce and Industries Magdeburg, and to Dr. Ing Volker Kleinschmidt of Pro Terra Team, a consultancy firm on EIA at Magdeburg. These experts not only provided useful information on the subject but also helped me in visiting units.

I am also deeply thankful to Professor B.M. Shukla, Professor H. S. Pathak and Mr. N.K. Pathak, all former directors of University School of Law, Gujarat University for making me interested in the field of law and for encouraging me to do Ph.D.

And finally, I would like to thank all the experts, people from civil society organizations and other stakeholders for sparing time for me and for sharing their valuable views on this subject with me.

Ashok Hirway

January 8, 2010.