Acknowledgements

I consider it a great privilege to have been associated with Prof. J.N. Desai, under whose guidance this thesis work was completed. His clear thinking, deep insight in science and his constant encouragement greatly helped me throughout my Ph.D tenure. His extremely simple nature and childlike curiosity towards understanding any physical phenomena has been a great source of inspiration to me. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to him for his expert guidance in my thesis work and for critically reading the manuscript and making several constructive suggestions.

I am profoundly thankful to Dr. T. Chandrasekhar who has helped me in different phases of my thesis work. He has, with his great expertise, helped me in all my observational programmes at Kavalur and Mount Abu. I also thank him for many illuminating discussions on various aspects of my work.

Prof. B.G. Anandarao has helped me in many ways and I have benefitted immensely through his critical assessments and suggestions about my work. I am thankful to him for his generous help on many occasions. I would like to thank Prof. M.R. Deshpande for taking keen interest in my research work and for making useful remarks and for his overall help. Thanks are also due to Prof. P.V. Kulkarni for his encouragement during the initial stages of my work. I am grateful to Dr. N.M. Ashok for his cheerful and everhelping nature. I would like to acknowledge Drs. D.B. Vaidya and U.C. Joshi for their assistance.

Thanks are due the Director Prof. R.K. Varma, the Dean Prof. S. Krishnaswami and professors J.N. Goswami, V.B. Sheorey, A.C. Das, R. Sridharan and A. Bhatnagar for their continued interest in my work. It is a great pleasure to thank Dr. P.D. Angreji who has always provided cheerful company.
I enjoyed the scientific as well as personal association with my senior colleague Debi. His enthusiastic approach towards work and his good background in observational techniques have been quite useful to me. I value his collaboration in many academic activities and my thanks are due to him. I thank my colleague D.P.K. Banerjee for various scientific discussions and for his cordial nature. Sam has always been extremely helpful and my special thanks are due to him. I thank Mrs. Shylaja for many fruitful discussions. I also thank my other colleagues Lambodar, Asoke Sen and Seema for providing good company within and outside the laboratory.

I gratefully acknowledge the help rendered by Mr. H.I. Pandya, in my computational work and to Messers N.S. Jog, K.S.B. Manian and R.K. Mahadkar for their prompt assistance at many occasions, to Messers P.K. Kikani, F.M. Pathan, J.S. Chauhan, A.B. Shah, R.T. Patel and N.C. Shah, Mrs S. Jani, Mary Thomas and Mira Karjaonkar for their cooperation at various stages. My special thanks are due to Mr. V.C. Mathew for his help in typing some parts of the thesis and for his various administrative help.

I have greatly enjoyed the company of my close associates and friends Kishku, Subbu, Mathew, Bhaskaran, Jerry, Krishnan, Guru, Satheesh, Sarangi, Ramesh Babu, Sushant, Viju, Ashwini, Jitesh, Sai, Ravi Bhushan, Anjan, Himadri and Debashish. My special thanks to Jerry, Kishku and Subbu for a careful reading of the manuscript and making several useful suggestions regarding the presentation. I also thank Sushant and Mathew specially, for their assistance regarding the style of the thesis.

I would like to record my acknowledgements to the Director and staff of the Indian Institute of Astrophysics for providing the telescope time and for allowing me to use the PDS facilities. I express my gratitude to late Mr. Jayaraj of IIA who helped me with the operation of the PDS.
It is a great pleasure to thank staff members of library, computer centre workshop & maintenance and canteen for their excellent services and cooperation. I am grateful to Mr. D.R. Ranpura for photographic assistance and also to Mr. S.K. Bhavsar for his neat drafting of some of the diagrams. I would like to thank Shanthamohan and family, Joseph and family, Sivasankaran and family, Manju and Rathna for their warm hospitality. I thank Bala for cheerful correspondence. Letters from my home have been quite refreshing throughout my stay at PRL and I thank all my family members for their love and affection. Finally I thank all my friends and well-wishers who have directly or indirectly helped me in making my efforts successful.
