List of Tables

1.1 Employment Situation in India in 1988-89  ................................................................. 2
1.2 Employment in Village and Small Industries in India ...................................................... 10
1.3 Production in Village and Small Industries in India .......................................................... 11
1.4 Exports in Village and Small Industries in India ................................................................. 12
2.1 Production and Employment in 1987-88 in Three Sectors of Textile Industry ................... 25
2.2 Production of Total Fabrics in Three Sectors ................................................................. 26
2.3 Itemwise Exports of Textiles from 1985-86 to 1989-90 ...................................................... 27
2.4 Average Unit Value Realisation of Exports of Cotton Textiles ......................................... 29
2.5 Projected Exports of Cotton Handloom Textiles During Eighth Plan .................................. 30
2.6 Production and Availability of Cotton Cloth 1900-1939 .................................................... 31
2.7a Statewise Distribution of Looms & Rural Areas ............................................................. 35
2.7b Statewise Distribution of Types of Looms ....................................................................... 36
2.7c Statewise Distribution of Handloom Weavers and Their Earnings ................................... 37
2.7d Statewise Distribution of Productivity Per Loom Per Day ................................................. 38
2.8 Per Capita Consumption of Textiles According Fibre Groups at All Levels ......................... 42
2.9 Income Groupwise Per Capita Consumption in 1987 .......................................................... 45
3.1 Handlooms in India and Tamil Nadu: A Comparative View ............................................... 81
3.2 Handlooms in Tamil Nadu and Salem: A Comparative View ............................................. 81
3.3 Weavers H.llds of Salem Under Different Monthly Income Groups .................................. 85
3.4 Distribution of Looms by Product-Groups in Salem:1990 .................................................. 87
3.5 Procurement against Potential Capacity of Product-Groups by Co-optex in Salem in the Year 1990 89
4.1 Weavers Statistics on Poverty Janata Schemes Relationship .............................................. 102
4.2 Productwise Wage Rate, Selling Price, Procurement Cost and Annual Forecast ................. 114
4.3 Productwise Summary of Sales, Procurement Cost, Contribution, Wages, and Net Contribution of Salem, 1990 116
4.4 Productwise Summary of Actual Sales, Procurement Cost, Contribution and Wages in Salem, 1990 117
5.1 Number of Societies engaged in Producing Single and Multi Products in Salem in 1990

5.2 Model I: Results of Six Societies: Period One (Jan-Feb, 1990)

5.3 Model II: Results of Six Societies: Period One (Jan-Feb, 1990)

5.4 Model III: Results of Six Societies: Period One (Jan-Feb, 1990)

5.5 Wage Distributed in Six Periods during 1990 by Co-optex to the WCS of Salem

5.6a Actual Wages and Their Cumulatives (in Rs.) Distributed by Co-optex in Salem during the Six Periods of the Year 1990 shown for the Eight Selected Societies

5.6b Allocation of Cumulative Wages (in Rs.) through Model I among the WCS of Salem during the Six Periods of the Year 1990 shown for the Eight Selected Societies

5.6c Allocation of Cumulative Wages (in Rs.) through Model II among the WCS of Salem during the Six Periods of the Year 1990 shown for the Eight Selected Societies

5.6d Allocation of Cumulative Wages (in Rs.) through Model III among the WCS of Salem during the Six Periods of the Year 1990 shown for the Eight Selected Societies

5.6e Ratios of Disparity of Wages Reduces Over Time Between the Recipient Societies of Maximum and Minimum Wages in the Allocation Models

5.7 Annual Wage Distributed by Co-optex and Allocated Wage by Three Models among Selected Societies (in Rs)

5.8 Results of Model I from Annexure 5.3