ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No matter how much I write or say, words would always fall scanty to express my gratitude, my indebtedness to all the persons I came upon in interaction during this journey of the past few years. Nevertheless, here I put up a humble attempt to express my thankful obeisance to all at this juncture.

My first bow goes to my guide, Dr. USHA H. VYAS. It is a pleasure for me to express gratitude to my honorable teacher and guide, Dr. Usha H. Vyas whose constant guidance and encouragement has made it possible for me to complete this work. It has really been a great sense of privilege for me to have an opportunity to work under her.

My sincere thanks to the past and present Directors of M & J Institute of Ophthalmology, Ahmedabad—Dr. B.C. LAVINGIA, Dr. B.K. GHODADRA and Dr. D.C. MEHTA for allowing me to utilize the facilities available in the hospital for this study.

I am grateful to my colleagues and staff members of M & J Institute of Ophthalmology, Civil Hospital, Ahmedabad for their encouragement and cooperation. I would also like to thank Mr. Tiwari and other staff members of the P & SM department of Smt. N.H.L. Muni. Medical college and B.J. Medical college for statistical support for the study.

I owe my thanks to staff members and teachers of different blind schools who helped me throughout this thesis and whose valuable cooperation helped me a lot to pursue this study. I would like to acknowledge Mrs. Nandiniben Rawal of Blind people’s Association, Vastrapur, Ahmedabad for all her help during this period.

My study would have not been possible without our little unfortunate children, whom it was conducted and I am grateful for the cooperation from them and their parents.

The present work would not have been completed without inspiration, encouragement and co-operation given to me from time to time by my beloved wife, Dr. Sajani Shah. It gives me immense pleasure to express heartiest regards to her. It would rather be incomplete if I do not thank my little daughter- Prisha. Last but not least, I express my kneedown gratitude to all my family members who are always constant source of inspiration, support and strength during all ups and downs of mine.
