Acknowledgements

I am deeply grateful to my Supervisor, Prof. A.C. Ramanathan for his expert guidance, patient hearing, constant encouragement and invaluable suggestions which enabled me to work in very systematic and proper manner. I would like to thank him from the core of my heart for his patience and consistent effort at each and every stage of my research work.

I offer sincere thanks to Dean, Prof. Sudha Bhattacharya for providing the necessary facilities and extending all the help for entire work. I am also thankful to previous Deans Prof. K.G. Saxena, Prof. V.K. Jain, Prof. J. Behari and Prof. Kasturi Dutta for facilitating my research work at various stages.

It is a great opportunity to express my heartiest gratitude to all my teachers in School of Environmental Sciences for their guidance and encouragement throughout my academic career in this school. I would convey my sincere gratitude to Prof. P.S. Khilar, Prof. G.P. Malik, Prof. S. Mukherjee and Prof. J. Subba Rao for their valuable suggestions for my study.

I am very thankful to Mr. S.D.S. Rawat (SES, JNV) for his great support and guidance particularly in official matters and I thank all office staff for their help during my study at JNV.

I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and profound thanks to Dr. K. Dhanapal, Director, EPICIN, Coimbatore for proper guidance related to Treatment scenarios in Study area and planning and also facilitating my sampling and other logistic support during field work regarding collection of samples from different CETPs in Tirupur. Special thanks to Dr. S. Jayalakshmi, faculty, CAS in Marine Biology, Annamalai University for microbial analysis of my samples. I am also thankful to Dr. Sujee Kumar Sinha (Scientist, CGWB, Faridabad) for helping me in collecting different secondary data sets.

I also take this opportunity to thank various people who assisted me during sampling and analysis. I deeply acknowledge the technical support of Dr. P.D. Gaikwad, Sharma ji, Bhardwaj ji and Rawat ji (SES, JNV) during the research work at JNV. In this regard Mr. Vignesh, Mr. Mani (Tirupur) deserve a special mention for their help during sampling. I wish to express my gratitude to the managing directors of different CETPs and owners of various knitting, dyeing and garmenting units for allowing sampling and furnishing valuable information which helped immensely in completing this work. I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Public Works Department (PWD), Coimbatore, and Pollution Control Board (TNPCB), Tirupur for providing me the secondary data of groundwater, surface water of Noyyal River and effluent quality of CETPs.

The time spent in the lab has been rewarding because of cooperation and meaningful discussions with seniors, colleagues and loving juniors. I wish to thank my lab mates Dr. P.G. Jose, Dr. Manju Dr. Parmanand, Dr. Jayalakshmi, Dr. Anurag, Shrutti, Bhumna, Uddhabji, Rajesh, Venkat Sharma, Jaya Tiwari, Sanjay, Pankaj, Mukesh, Rajkumar, Jayjit, Virendra, K.K. Manoj and Dada (C. Chatterjee) for their support throughout my Ph.D tenure. Faroq deserves special mention for being brotherly and cheerful. I would like to mention Sahyam, who always bring breeze of cheer and happiness. A very special thanks to my sweet brother Ravi and Mani bhaiya for all the help they provided in the lab. I would specially like to thank my lab mates for maintaining a good lab culture and cordial working atmosphere. Their enthusiasm motivated me to work hard and stride cheerfully in the hard times.

It is indeed difficult to pen down my deep sense of gratitude to Alok, Kshagbra and Chander for their pain staking efforts endowed upon me endlessly during the compilation of my thesis. They extended their support in more than one way and helped me in presenting my ideas in a better way. How can I forget to thank Uddhab ji for helping me whether it was analytical part or the writing part of my work. I express my gratitude to Dr. Gurmeet and my juniors Sadaf and Swati who took endless efforts in correcting and updating the thesis and a heartfelt gratitude to my senior Dr. Manish for important input at last stage of thesis writing.
I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to my classmates Akansha, Sharmila, Vishwamohan, Parijat, Nitesh, Vijaypal, Deepak Choudhary, Shivaji and Pradeep (my loving & caring brother) who always energised me with their constant support and encouragement. My Friends, who were always with me and make me proud to have friends like Sanyo, Shashi, Rinky, Deepak, Bipin, Puja and Sonalika. I must not forget my old pals Sangeeta, Rina, Sudhi, Sujeeet, Rajesh, Mriganka, Basir and Ruchi n Divya (for sisterly affection) who supported me in all my ups and downs and encouraged me throughout my study work.

I would like to pen down the affection and care which, I enjoyed during my stay in JNU with my seniors specially Sutapa di, Ragini di, Indrani di, Amit bhaiya, Anurag bhaiya and to my seniors Ansumali sir, Shastri sir, Ujjawal sir, Amit Prakash, Sridhar sir, Umesh sir, Ashwani sir, Bihuti sir and Jayanand sir. The cheers of Mussarat, Yama, Ankur, Sudip, Naren, Chiku n Chinu must need a special mention for lifting my spirits.

I feel privileged to admire Pitajee and Maaje who always promoted me to do something special. He is the person who has placed me in this heavenly condition where I completed my Ph.D, and in future he will also guide me to proceed in appropriate direction.

At the end the immense support and encouragement given to me by my family: Dadajee, Dadi, Nanajee, Nani, Vishnu baje, Indradev baje, Mausamee, Mausi and my siblings Ritesh bhaiya, Manish, Satish, Prateek, Sumeet, Shubham, Kanchan and my lovely sister Shreyaa which sustained my energy levels throughout my work and inspired me to put my best efforts in everything I did. This thesis is the result of their constant encouragement, prayers, tolerance, patience, support and advice.

No words can express my deep sense of gratitude to Chotte Pitajee and Maa who always stood by me everywhere and in every walk of life as well as study. Without their constant encouragement I would not have been at this place. I especially thank Ritesh bhaiya for lending an ear to whatever I said. Last but not the least; I feel lucky to have such a lovely family and this thesis may not have been a reality without them.

I should not forget to convey my sincere thanks to my in-laws, especially Papa, Mummy, Bhaiya, Bhabhi, Didi, Jijajee and lovely Khushi who were always there and enabled me to take this challenging job successfully.

A special person needs a special mention for his rock solid support, love and care. I extend my heartfelt thank to my husband, who entered at a very crucial juncture of my life and stood beside me in every walk of my life. His endless support and encouragement during sampling, analysis and writing helped me immensely to complete this thesis. He managed all my personal life in efficient and proper manner which was equally important for compilation of this work.

At last but not least, it is the Jawaharlal Nehru University, which placed me in such a position that I can make fruitful contribution to society. It is my Alma mater. The Godavari Hostel, where I spent my entire tenure of JNU needs special mention for witnessing all my ups and down.

Financial assistance in the form of research fellowship from the UGC, India is deeply acknowledged.

I bow in reverence to the Almighty-the omnipresent and omnipotent for showering me with the strength and courage to complete this work.
