ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my first and foremost duty to express my profound reverence to Dr. P.P. Shirodkar, Ex-Director of Archives, Archaeology and Museum, Government of Goa, Panaji with whose supervision I completed this thesis. I thank him for the guidance and encouragement given to me throughout the course of this work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. J. Varaprasad Rao, Dy.S.A, A.S.I. who provided me the opportunity to undertake the valuable research. And I am also thankful to Shri K.K. Mohammed, S.A, Shri K. Venkateswara Rao, Dy.S.A, Sri G.S. Narasimhan, S.A., and N. Taheer, Dy.S.A, A.S.I. with whom I often discussed and sought their valuable advice.

I am grateful to Dr. Shyam Bhat, Reader and Head, Department of History, Goa University, Dr. Pius Malekandathil, Reader, and Dr. Pratima Kamat, Reader, for their co-operation and encouragement.

Shri Sravan Kumar, Archaeological Survey of India, Goa, rendered his valuable services during my study and helped me in computerisation of the thesis. I am also indebted to Shri R. Raghu and Lal Babu Singh for their timely services.
I thank my colleagues—Tilu Raiu Fernandes, Dilip Gaude, Avelino Fernandes, Devidas Bhomkar and Bharat Raj for their kind co-operation.

My thanks are due to Shri Gautam Haldar, Shri G.K. Korgaonkar, Shri B.P. Wadagaonkar, Shri G.L. Gaikwad, Shri Abhijit Ambekar, Smt. Maria G. Velho, Smt. Rema S. Naik, Smt. Neelasha G. Desai, Shri Parashuram Kadam, Shri Prakash Mahale and Shri Prakash Gaonkar for their help in many respects.

I also express my thanks to the Library authorities of the A.S.I. Mini Circle Goa, A.S.I. Museum, Old Goa, and the Directorate of Archives and Archaeology, Panaji, for providing me facilities to work for my Ph.D. Degree.
