Acknowledgements

First of all I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. A. N. Sharma, Head, Department of Anthropology, Dr. H. S. Gour University, Sagar Madhya Pradesh for allowing & encouraging me to work on the challenging topic. Who has borne a lot of pain in supervising me, being with me always from beginning of the fieldwork to compilation of the thesis. He benevolently extended all possible help to make this thesis work as better as possible. His diligence and great experience in fieldwork have never allowed me to feel exhausted ever and has given my work a real shape in it.

I am also thankful to my other subject teachers, Prof. K, Saini, Dr. Ruma Purkait, Dr. K.K.N. Sharma and Dr. Rajesh Gautam, for sharing their invaluable thoughts and experiences with me in this study.

I am thankful to Dr. (Smt.) Nivedita Sharma, for encouraging unvoiced, consistent and strong moral support during my Ph.D. works.

My thanks are also due to kind people of Baiga Tribe of Mandla District, who supported me during the fieldwork as they answered my questions with endurance and patient. I also thankful to the Doctors and Health Workers of Mandla who provided me some important information about the medical and health related aspects of Baigas of Mandla District.

I am especially thankful to my teachers and seniors, Dr. Chandrlekha Panwar, Dr. Ajay Gharami, Dr. Asish Gupta, Meghna Jain who guided me from time to time for this work.

I am extremely grateful to all the Badoniya family specially Dada Shri Ballabh Das Badoniya for their help and support during my fieldwork at Mandla district.

I take a special note of thanks to all the officials of, Department of Anthropology, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar and Jawaharlal Nehru Library of the University for their constant help.
