ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is the end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various institutions. At the end of my thesis, I would like to thank all those people who made this thesis possible and an unforgettable experience for me. It is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my guide, Dr. S. Mahadeva Murthy. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. He used to review progress of my thesis give his valuable suggestions, constructive criticism and extensive discussions around my work, unflinching courage and conviction always inspired me and I hope to continue to work with ambience of his noble thoughts. I can only say a proper thanks to him through my future work. I am also extremely indebted to his wife Dr. D. Sumangala for her timely support and encouragement.

I must offer my profound gratitude to Prof. E.T. Puttaiah, Vice Chancellor, Gulbarga University for his unreserved help and guidance and lead me in my way towards completion of this degree.

There are no proper words to convey my deep gratitude and respect for my research advisor, Prof. Keshava Nireshwalia. He has inspired me to become an independent researcher and helped me realize the power of critical reasoning. He also demonstrated what a brilliant and hard-working scientist can accomplish.

I am much indebted to Dr. N. Lakshmi Devi, Dr. Shubha Gopal, Prof. Shankar P. Hosmani and Dr. Kauser Fathima for their valuable advice and support in my work.

I would also like to extend my thanks to Dr. H.S. Jayanth and Dr. P.K. Maheshwar for supporting my research work to sail smoothly. I also thank the non-teaching staff of Department of Microbiology, Yuvaraja’s College Mrs. Nanjamanni and Mr. Mukunda for their support.
It is my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of some special individuals. Words fail me to express my appreciation to Mrs. C.R. Poornima Devi for her support, generous care and the homely feeling throughout. She was always beside me during the happy and hard moments to push me and motivate me. I can see the good shape of my thesis because of her help and suggestions throughout my research. Thanking her is incomplete without a respectful thanks to her husband Mr. M.R. Kemparaju and children Master K.P. Harsha and Master K.P. Prutevi for their timely support in collection of samples.

A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of support extended by Mr. A. Nagaraju, Dr. C. Nagalambika, Mrs. D. Sunita, Miss K.N. Akshatha, Mrs. Shobha and Mr. H.V. Pavan who were always there when I really needed them. Thank you does not seem sufficient but it is said with appreciation and respect to them for their support, encouragement, care, understanding and precious friendship.

It is also a pleasure to mention my good friends, Mrs. H.U. Kavitha, Mrs. P. Bhavyashree, Mrs. Yogitha Manohar, Mrs. Deepa Nijagal, Miss B.R. Sushmitha, Miss S.A. Veena, Miss M.B. Asha and Mr. M.K. Mahesh Kumar for their love, care, support and providing a pleasant atmosphere for me to complete this thesis.

I would also like to express my heartfelt thanks to my research friends Miss M.S. Sangeetha, Mrs. K.S. Shubha, Mr. D. Rakshith and Mr. Shiva Kumar for their timely help and support.

I convey special acknowledgement to my sister Dr. K. Bhagyalakshmi and brother-in-law Dr. S.V. Deepak. During the inevitable ups and downs of conducting my research, she often reminded me of life’s true priorities. This helped me a lot to work for hours together tirelessly. I doubt that I will ever be able to convey my appreciation fully, but I owe my sister my eternal gratitude.

My thesis would be incomplete without thanking my Doddappaji Mr. Tholacha Naik and Dodamma Mrs. P. Sharada Bai and family Mr. K. Mohan, Mrs. Suma, Mr. Kiran, Mrs. K. Chandralatha, Kum Pallavi Kiran, Kum Meghana Mohan and Master Karthikeya.

I cannot forget my good friend’s family who stood beside me in hard times together, cheered me on and celebrated each accomplishment Dr. Shivamadhavu,
Mrs. Lalitha Shivamadhu, Mr. Ravi Kottur, Mrs. Ashwini Ravi Kottur, Miss. Brinda S. Madhu and Mr. Maheshwar S. Madhu.

I am fortunate to have been surrounded by a wonderful set of people, grace as one could ever hope for. They have cultivated my growth in embarking on an exciting new journey and shaped my vision of doing science. Being in farther distances, but always close to my heart the unconditional love from my parents Mr. D. Shankar, Mrs. P. Sunanda Bai, my loving sister K.S. Navya and my brother Praveen K.S. Naik have been a great source of happiness and joy to me during challenging times. They are the assets of my life. No matter how small, my personal treasures of triumphs have all been possible because of my parents’ faith and sacrifice in my education and research. I thank them for giving me wholehearted love without expectation of any return and having belief in me.

Finally, I thank with love to my husband Mr. K.H. Mohanesh, a great companion who understood me and my work, accompanied as a friend, supported, encouraged, entertained and helped me get through this agonizing period in the most positive way.

Acknowledging would be incomplete if I do not thank my in-laws family Mr. K.H. Hirya Naik, Mrs. K.C. Kasturi Bai, Mrs. K.H. Sathyavathi, Dr. M.B. Jayanna, Mrs. K.H. Hemalatha, Mr. K.H. Venkatesh, Mrs. B.C. Veena, Kum. C. Monica, Kum. Likitha J. Naik, Master Tilak J. Naik and Little V. Shreyas for their support and encouragement.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge Prof. V.G. Talwar, Prof. H.S. Prakash and Prof. S.R. Niranjana for providing financial assistance in the form of Project Fellow under Institution of Excellence (IOE), UGC – MHRD project, New Delhi, which buttressed me to perform my work comfortably. I would also like to thank Yuvaraja’s College, Mysore and Department of Environmental Engineering, SJCE, Mysore for providing the laboratory facilities.
