ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Words are often not enough to express one's inner feelings of indebtedness to one's benefactors. The same difficulty leads the investigator in penning down the deep sense of gratitude. If words are considered as symbol of approval and taken of appreciation then let the heralding role of expressing my sincerest gratitude and thanks to Almighty God, who alone plans everything that happens in the world. He grants strength, endurance and patience to carry out this research work successfully.

I feel privileged in expressing my deep gratitude and thanks to my esteemed guide, Dr (Mrs) Jeewan Jyoti Sidana, for her expert guidance, stimulating discussions and critical examining of the work.

I owe my sincerest thanks to Dean, Faculty of Education, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar and Principal, Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar who have been kind enough for their inspiration and valuable direction.

I am deeply indebted to Director, GAD Institute of Development studies, Amritsar. His indomitable involvement and unequivocal knowledge of the subject accompanied with humility made my thesis see the light of the day.

I am deeply thankful to my uncle and entire team of workers of Modi Xerox, Amritsar who lend me great support and help in typing and printing my research work and giving it right shape.

I extend my appreciation to all those authors who remained behind the curtain but whose work had been consulted and referred for completing my research work. My grateful thanks to the Chairman and Staff of SMDRSD College of Education, Pathankot for their continuous support and cooperation.

I shall be failing in my solemn duly if I do not acknowledge with gratitude the blessings and encouragement of my parents, husband, brother and sisters who rendered me enormous moral support during the whole tenure. They stood as pillars of strength preventing me to falter at times of stress and strain.

Last but not least I am deeply indebted from the core of my heart to my loving and adorable little daughter for her love, cooperation, patience and support. All cannot be mentioned but none is forgotten.
