ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I wish to acknowledge my great indebtedness to my mentor Dr. K.K. Dube, Reader, Dr. H.S. Gour Univ. Sagar, for his inspiring and enlightened guidance, and immeasurable help throughout the present study.

I am deeply grateful to all my teachers of the University Teaching Department of Mathematics, Sagar, specially to Dr. P.L. Sharma, Professor, Dr. S.K. Shrivastava, Professor and head of the Department of Mathematics and Statistics and Dr. S.N. Maheshwari, Senior Reader, Dept. of Mathematics and Statistics, Dr. H.S. Gour Univ. Sagar.

My heartfelt thanks are due to my Seniors Dr. O.S. Panwar, Res. Associate and in particular to Dr. R.K. Tiwari for showing keen and incisive interest in my progress and devoting a good part of his valuable time for useful and animated discussions.

I express my sincere thanks to Mr. B.N. Patel and other Co. research workers, whom I always found so anxious to unselfish help and provide a well-needed congenial atmosphere.

I sincerely thank to Mr. L.P. Choubey, Office Asstt. Of the Department for his unfailing courtesy and assistance.
