ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I greatly acknowledge the immeasurable debt I owe to my venerable supervisor, Dr. L.P. Chourasia, Reader in applied Geology, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar. His key role in the initiation of this work, coupled with his pervading guidance, untiring efforts and constant encouragement enabled this work to attain its present form. He has always given top priority for this work inspite of his extremely busy schedule. The author tries in vain to find suitable words to express his sincere gratitude for his benevolent guidance.

I feel immensely thankful to Prof. S.K. Babu, Head department of applied Geology and Dean faculty of Engineering and also to Prof. T.V.V.G.R.K. Murty, former Head, department of Applied Geology, Dr. H.S. Gour, Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar for their constant encouragement and affectionate inspiration for the completion of this work.

The author would also like to gratefully acknowledge his fruitful discussions on the problem of structure of the area and its impact on hydrogeological conditions, with Dr. W.D. West, C.I.E., Sc.D., F.G.S., F.N.I., Emeritus professor and former Director General, Geological Survey of India, which has been proved to be of immense value.

The name of my non geological friend Mr. Sunil Dubey, will always be there in my memory. Without his cooperation and hospitality, I received from him during the time of my field work, it would have been difficult for me to complete this work.

Thanks are also due to Mr.K.K.Choudhary, Chief Geologist, Groundwater survey, department of Irrigation, Govt.of Madhya Pradesh, Bhopal for providing various valuable data.

Director, Regional research laboratory, council of scientific and Industrial research, Bhopal also deserves my warm thanks for kindly providing me laboratory facilities for toxic element analysis of water samples.

My thanks are also due to Mr.Rakesh Bajpai, Doctoral fellow U.G.C., New Delhi and Dr.Shekhar Limye, Lecturer, department of Political Science, Dr.H.S.Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar by whose advice I have been profited a great deal. They used to give me just the kind of criticism on literary and logical points which any author could always turn to his advantage.

Thanks are also due to Shri Rajeev S.Nair, Shri Pramod Jain, Shri Ashok Rai, Shri Arun Khare, Shri Yatish Mishra, Shri R.P.S.Raina, Shri Shalesh Jain, Shri J.P. Shrivastava, Shri Arun Shrivastava, Atul Jain, Naresh Tiwari and Miss.Sangeeta Guha for their help and cooperation received in many ways.
Thanks are also due to Shri Y.K. Agrawal and Shri D.K. Agrawal, Neeta Typing Centre, Civil Lines for the time and care they devoted for nicely typing & photocopy of the thesis respectively.

I thank my parents for not letting me worry about any problem related with family during the entire period of my research work and specially when I had to stay away from home at the university for long periods of time during the finalisation of this thesis.

Lastly the author expresses his sincere thanks to his best friend Archana Jaria, Zoology Department, Sagar University, Sagar for his constant encouragement for the completion of this work.
