ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my proud privilege to express my deepest gratitude to my beloved teachers, Dr. S. Saraf, Professor of Anthropology, University of Sagar and Dr. D.K. Pukharya, Reader, Deptt. of Criminology and Forensic Science, University of Sagar, for their keen interest, affectionate guidance and prompt help throughout this work. I consider, it is a matter of great fortune to have worked under their supervision.

My thanks and acknowledgements are due to Dr. G.C. Jain, Professor and Head, Department of Criminology & Forensic Science, University of Sagar, Sagar (M.P.), whose sage advice and inspiration kept me on the writing of this thesis.

I am very much obliged to Shri D.N. Ahuja, I.P.S., Director General, of Prison, Govt. of M.P., Shri K. Iserar Ahmad, Add. I.G. of Prison, Shri G.K. Agrawal, D.I.G. Prison, Shri A.K. Rawat, D.IG., Prison, Shri A.K. Khare, Superintendent of Central Jail, Shopal, for their interest in this study.
My thanks are due to Dr. V.K. Pathak, Sagar, Shri G.P. Tamazkar, Superintendent of Jail, Ratlam (M.P.), Shri L.P. Singh, Dy. Jailor, District Jail, Ambikapur, to my friends and colleagues, Dr. G.S. Badpai, Sagar, Smt. Kiran Deshmukh, Bombay, Shri Ram Shajan Tamazkar, Sagar, Shri Raju Tandon Sagar for their help in this study.

I owe my indebtedness to my loving parents, Smt. Sushila Gupta and Shri Shankar Lal Gupta for the constant encouragement and boundless affection, I have always received from them.

In the end, I place on record my note of gratitude to my adopted uncle (alias Kakkaji) who not only divulged the secrets of his trade, but also paved the way of my coming closer to his fellow tradesmen, and extend my thanks to my informants. Without their understanding and cooperation, the present work would not have been possible.
