ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The investigator wishes to record his deep sense of gratitude to all those who extended valuable help in enabling the present study achieve what it could — mainly to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, who provided a grant to cover the expenses of the field-work; the police and jail officials of the states of Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, and Uttar Pradesh for making the field work possible; the police officials, the inhabitants of the villages in Chambal Valley, and the inmates in different jails for the invaluable information supplied during the interviews; the librarians of various libraries, for making the consultations rewarding; the Department of Geography, University of Saugar, Sagar, for cartographical assistance; Professor Sushil Chandra, IISS, Agra, who inspired the formulation of the problem and the design of the study; Professor D.P. Jata, Head, Department of Criminology, University of Saugar, Sagar, whose indispensable counsel was available at all the stages of the study; Shri Mallikarjunan, Department of English, University of Saugar, Sagar, who went through the initial draft of the report (the responsibility for the shortcomings, nonetheless, is that of the investigator alone); and Shri V.K. Bowenkari who rendered valuable secretarial services.

M. Z. Khan