First of all I am ever grateful to my guide Professor Nikunja Behari Biswas, Department of Educational Sciences, Dean Ashutosh Mukhopadhaya School of Education, Assam University, Silchar for his scholarly guidance and cooperation. Without his help and support this work might not have been completed. I am indebted to him.

I am also thankful to all the faculty of department of Educational Sciences, A.U Silchar for their valuable help and suggestion to complete my study.

I convey my sincere thanks to Mr. L.C Das, D.P.O, S.S.A Kokrajhar for his full cooperation and help during the stage of data collection for this study.

I am indebted to all the experts, Deputy Inspectors of Schools, S.I of Schools of different circles,
Education Officers, Teachers, Librarians of various institutions who rendered their help, knowledge and full cooperation during the process of data collection.

I express my gratitude to my mother Nimaiswari Mushahary, my morale support, who always act as a source of inspiration, encouragement from the point of undertaking the work till its completion. Words are not enough to express my grateful feeling to my mother. I am also grateful to my father Late Shashi Kumar Rava for always being a source of inspiration from the beginning of my life. His blessings have always been with me. My grateful thanks also goes to my sister Shipra for her constant touch and valuable advice.

Special thanks goes to my brother Ranjit Mushahary who takes all pain and help whole heartedly during the data collection process.
My grateful thank goes to all my friends, well wishers and all those persons who directly or indirectly help in completing my research work.
