ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The manner of writing a PhD is a mission in many ways. Therefore, I would like to express my deepest gratitude and thanks to all those who directly and indirectly helped me to complete this study.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude and thanks to Dr. B. Nagarajamurthy, Professor in Department of Criminology and Forensic Science, Maharajas College, University of Mysore, Mysore 570005, my Guide and Mentor. Apart from Guide, he was also my teacher and it has been a real privilege to work under him. I am deeply grateful for his invaluable advice, unstinted support and patience in guiding and mentoring me from the very beginning to the final completion of this thesis.

My grateful acknowledge to Dr. Lancy D’ Souza, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, Maharajas College, University of Mysore, Mysore 570005 for his thoughtful comments, constant support and especially crucial information to statistical analysis for this study.

I also gratefully acknowledge the help, support and enormous information provided by Dr. Subramanya Rao, guest faculty, Maharajas College, Mysore 570005.

I reserved my deep gratitude to the honorable members of PhD colloquium for their crucial information for improvement of this study. Also I express gratitude to Principal, Maharajas College and all the staff members (both teaching and non-teaching), Department of education, Manasagangothri, Mysore for their kind cooperation throughout my endeavor.

I record my thanks to Dept. of Criminology and Forensic Science, Maharajas College, University of Mysore 570005 for being my mile stone in academicals history from degree to Ph.D. level and fulfill my dreams. And my special thanks to fellow research scholars, friends in Dept. of Criminology and Forensic Science, Maharajas College, University of Mysore 570005.

I deem it a privilege to thank Sri. Siddaramappa, DCP (Crime), Police Commissioner’s Office, Bangalore 560001 for the institutional support received while working on the pilot study of my PhD; in particular quick decision on permission to interview City Crime Branch (CCB) officers Bangalore City. I also take this opportunity to thank inspectors of CCB; Ashokan K.C, Hanamantharaya, Nagaraja K.S, K.S Puttamma and Srinivas B.N who has been given crucial information to my study during my visit.

This study is particular related to legalization hence the input from legal experts was vital, crucial and unavoidable aspect. Hence I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Adv. C.V Nagesh and Associates, Adv. Anil, Adv. R.S Premalatha, Adv. T.R Rajeshwari and Adv. Dr. R. Ramachandran, Bangalore. Also I record my deepest gratitude to Adv. A.K Rama Krishna, Mysore for his personnel attention and support for this study.

My grateful thanks also go to Sri. Jimmie Mesis, Editor-In-Chief & Publisher of PI Magazine, USA for providing detailed information about legal preview of Private Investigation in U.S.A, spy gadgets utilized by the PDAs.

Thanks to Sri. Shobha Mathur, writer, who gave insightful light to the subject of Private Investigation and took personnel interest to find and share the materials related to my study.

My grateful thanks will go to the Private Detectives and Private Detective Agencies those who supported me this study and spent valuable time with questionnaire and had given input. And I express my sincere thanks to other respondents belongs to the groups of Law Enforcement Agencies, Advocates and General Public.

Personally, I received immense encouragement and support from my friends Sri. K. Ravindran, Sri. K. Mohanan and Sri. Sreejith Sudhakar who supported me at core level to fulfill my Degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

My special thanks and appreciation to my friends Sri. Sweta J.M, Sri. Deepa B.S, Sri. RashmiTukdev and Sri. Shobha Umesh for constant encouragement, moral support and provided support in crucial time to complete for Degree of Ph.D.

Last, but definitely not least, I thank all those who have helped me directly and indirectly to complete this doctor of philosophy.

Mr. Vipin T.P.