ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I would like to thank Almighty who has blessed me with the courage and energy to take up this endeavor and make it a success.

I want to express my deep and sincere sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me in this research study. Without the help and care and sympathy of all these people I could not have completed this study.

In the development of the present research work design as thesis for the degree of Ph.D., my esteemed teacher, guide and intellectual mentor, Dr. Pranava Dave Assistant Professor of English, Department of English, S.P. University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, has encouragingly supervised the whole work. Words can not adequately express my gratitude to my guide for all the scholarly help, guidance, and encouragement and especially for the valuable time, he unreservedly afforded even during his personal odd circumstances. His guidance has helped me develop a better response to novels of Graham Swift and Amitav Ghosh and given me a keener insight into it. Whenever I have followed his scholarly advice, the work has been improved. Words, phrases and language coming within the range of my knowledge are not enough to express what I owe to him.

I am grateful to my Late father Mr. Harishchandra Ramkhilavan Yadav and my Late mother Mrs. Nankaben Yadav for their love and affection towards me and my dear uncles Mr. Rambachan Ramkhilavan Yadav and Mr. Keshavram Ramkhilavan Yadav respectively for strengthening my faith in Almighty, in myself, in my abilities for the realization of my dreams and hopes.

I wish to express my deepest feelings of gratitude and reverence to my elder brother Mr. Shivbahadur Harishchandra Yadav and younger brother Mr. Shivshankar Harishchandra Yadav whose brotherly affection and constant inspiration have boosted up my spirit during the entire research.

Finally and affectionately, all my sisters, my spouse, daughter Neha and son Kashish who have cared for me more than they care for themselves or even they care to care for me. They have kept me absolutely free from all household chores and worries. The twittering sound of my daughter and son always cheered me in my pensive mood. It was they who made this work a concrete possibility.
