ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have the privilege to express my sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to my Research Guide Professor J. Swargiary, Head, Department of Education, Gauhati University for generously sharing his knowledge and experience all throughout the tenure of the research period. His valuable suggestion, over all guidance and continued supervision made it possible to formulate the idea of this present research work till its submission in the present form.

I am grateful to Professor Gayatree Goswami, the Head of the Department of Education, Gauhati University and all Faculty members, library and non-teaching staff of the Departments of Education, Gauhati University for their constant encouragement, support and providing me necessary facilities and help during the period of my study in one way or the other.

Director, Department of Social Welfare, Govt. of Assam and Principal Magistrate, Juvenile Justice Board, Kamrup allowed me to collect necessary information from the inmates of Observation Home at Leechubari, (Jorhat), Boko and State Women Home, Jalukbari, Kamrup, Assam respectively. Accordingly Superintendents and other officials of different Observation Homes cooperated and helped me in collecting necessary information and also I have come to know from them some important aspects regarding juvenile delinquency and juvenile delinquent children very much essential for my study. I would be failing in my duty if I do not gratefully acknowledge their kind help and additional information.

I am thankful for the encouragement, inspiration and cooperation received from Dr. R. Bordoloi, Principal, Chhaygaon College and all other teaching and non-teaching members of Chhaygaon College family to pursue and complete my research work.

It is not possible for me to extend my thanks individually to all the children interviewed, as it would make a long list of more than three hundred persons. I am very much thankful to them for sparing their time, sharing their views with me during interview and also showing me some new dimensions and relevant additional information. Some of my colleagues, friends, acquaintances, students, relatives and some other persons concerned with the issue of juvenile delinquency, whom I met during my study, extended their unstinted cooperation, support and helped me in various ways. A few names are worth mentioning namely: Sima, Nabaniita, Mallika, Dipali Bidew, Nessa Bidew, Anupama Bidew, Aparna Bidew, Sharmila Bidew, Prabha Bidew, Mrinal Sir, Samsuddin Sir, Nagen Sir, Dhirenda, Phanindra, Dipika, Karim, Marjina and Beauti.

I am also thankful to the help rendered by the Librarian and staff of K K Handique Library of Gauhati University, Omeo Kumar Das Institute of Social Change and Development, Guwahati, District Library, Guwahati and Indian Council of Historical Research- North East Regional Centre, Gauhati University. Moina Sir, Borada, Sakuntala Mahi, Prafullada, Suresh Mama, Balenda, Aswini Kalita, Niva, and all other members of Adda-Sadissa, Mirza helped me in one way or the other. Dr Ranendra Kr. Das, Dr. Tapan Kr. Goswami, Dinesh Ch. Kalita and Sabeboro Namo Das always encouraged me. I would be failing in my duty if I do not gratefully acknowledge their kind help and encouragement.

My special thanks go to the Bishal Printers, Satmile, Jalukbari, Kamrup for helping me in printing and binding the thesis in time.

My husband Suruj, our two sons Bapa and Bapu, Maa, Mother-in-law, Bhaiti, Pradip, Balen, Pullen, Pulak, Babati-Matu, Niku, Buli, Minumahi-Matu, Momi, Puspa, Maina, Kapil, and Nupur were always there with me to share all types of my troubles during the entire period of the study.

(Rina Kalita)