Appendix – (A)

PERSONAL DATA SHEET

This Personal Data Sheet is a part of the data base designed with an intention of gathering very basic and essential data of a person selected as a sample for psychological study from a group of population.

These data are purely for the research purpose and shall not be used for purposes other than specified. The information gathered and the result drawn thereafter will be utilized purely for academic purposes.

The data gathered and the outcome of analysis will be kept under the strict confidentiality and shall not be divulged to any other than the scholar concern.

➢ Age
➢ Duration after diagnosis.
➢ Gender
➢ State to which client belongs.