ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my profound sense of gratitude and respect to all those who helped me through the duration of this Ph.D. thesis. Firstly, I thank Almighty for his grace, wisdom, favour and protection. His divine presence and eternal blessings help us to fulfil all our goals. Without his grace, this would not have been possible.

I take this opportunity and honour to express a deep sense of gratitude and reverence to my esteemed supervisors Dr. Ashutosh Dixit (Associate Professor, Department of Computer Engineering, YMCA University of Science and Technology, Faridabad, Haryana, India) and Prof. (Dr). R. P. Agarwal (Vice-Chancellor, Shobhit University, Meerut, India, Ex-Professor and Dean IIT Roorkee, former Vice-Chancellor Bundelkhand University, Jhansi, U.P. and Dr. H. S. Gour Central University, Sagar, M.P.), for their continuous guidance, encouragement, and useful suggestions throughout. Their affection, guidance and scientific approach served a veritable incentive for completion of this work. Dr. Dixit, an excellent teacher and guide, who provided me the academic support in the form of deep knowledge of the subject. I thank him for his constant encouragement and, constructive academic and research support. I express my indebtedness to Prof. Agarwal, being a constant source of inspiration, mentor and above all for his encouragement and, for precious time he spared for me in spite of his busy schedule.

I feel privileged while thanking Honourable Chairman Dr. Shobhit Kumar ji and Honourable Chancellor Kunwar Shekhar Vijendra ji, who always inspired the staff members of the University to enhance their skills. I thank them for providing congenial environment and full support in the campus for pursuing my research work.

It’s my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the direct or indirect support of some special individuals. Prof. Anoop Swarup (former Vice-Chancellor Shobhit University, Meerut) for being great visionary and motivator and Prof. A. K. Sharma (Professor and Dean, YMCA University of Science and Technology, Faridabad), a great soul who always inspired and motivated me whenever I have been under pressure from peers, provided invaluable suggestions and constructive steps to complete my work successfully, the person who told me need and importance of opponents in the life to work hard and grow.

My special regards to Prof. Yogesh Singh (Professor and Dean, GGSIP University Delhi, currently Vice Chancellor M. S. University Baroda, Gujrat), who boosted my morale to see my career in computer engineering, to be doctorate and has always been ready to help with a smile, Prof. G. L. Mittal (CCS University, Meerut), a signature in the field of physics, whom from I learnt teaching methodology, Prof. G. C. Sharma (Ex-Pro VC Dr. B. R. University, Agra) and Prof. D.P.S. Verma (Ex-Professor University of Delhi, Ex-Advisor Shobhit University, Meerut) for providing invaluable suggestions to write my thesis in proper shape. My regards to the eminent scholars to whom I have been associated with during the last few years, especially, Prof. Raghuvir Singh (Vice Chancellor, Shobhit University Gangoh), Prof. Asok De (Director, NIT Patna), Prof. Qasim Rafiq (AMU Aligarh), Prof. C. S. Rai (GGSIP University, Delhi), Prof. Rajiv Kapoor (DTU, Delhi), Prof. P. N. Goswami (Ex-Dean, Shobhit University), Prof. Rahul Rishi (MD University, Rohtak), Prof. C. K. Nagpal (YMCA University, Faridabad), Prof. Komal Bhatia (YMCA University, Faridabad), Prof. Vinod Kumar (Gurukul Kangri Vishwavidyalaya, Hardwar), Prof. B. K. Kaushik (IIT, Roorkee) and Prof. Arti Noor (CDAC Noida). It has been a great honour to me for having been associated with the scholars like them.

I would like to thank Prof. D. V. Rai (Registrar and Director Centre of Biomedical Engineering), Prof. R. G. Singhal (Exam Controller) and other administrative staff members of the University for their help and support in their respective roles. I also would like to thank all my colleagues for their constructive criticism and suggestions.

I also want to thank my well wishers specially, Col. (Retd.) (Dr.) Naresh Kumar (Director DIMS, Meerut), Sh. Dev Nagar (Vice-Principal, Godwin Public School, Meerut), Sh. Narinder Kumar (Army Public School, Meerut), Sh. Yash Bhardwaj (a great astrologer by hobby) and Sh. Avimanyou Kumar Vatsa (Research Scholar, University of Missouri, USA) for their moral support and vision to find a researcher scholar in me. I also convey my thanks to all my research scholars, especially Mr. Vineet Kumar Bhardwaj, for their all time support.

Lastly, my deep sense of obligations are reserved for my grandfather and the then Zameendaar (Late) Lala Ramnath ji, who always inspired me to reach new heights, my parents Sh. J. N. Singhal and Smt. Sarla Rani for their blessings, my cousin Er. Sanjay Gupta (Director, Bureau of Indian Standards) for giving me a dream to be an engineer, brother-in-law Sh. Sunil Goyal and other relatives for their moral support and patience for bearing with my absence in societal commitments. Special thanks to my wife Sonia for her patience, persistence, sacrifices and words of encouragement and, my little tension-busters Ishani and Aviral, whose twinkling eyes and cheerful faces have always been catalyst for me to work till late in the nights, and allowed me to spend most of the time on this thesis to see my name preceded with doctorate.
