Acknowledgements

It is a moment of gratification and pride to look back with a sense of contentment at the long travelled path, to be able to recapture some of the fine moments, to be able to thank infinite number of people, some who were with me from the beginning and some who joined me at some stage during the journey. The kindness, love and blessing showered by them have brought this day, I wish to thank each one of them with all my heart.

Words seem insufficient to express my deep sense of gratitude, to beloved and respected guide Prof. Shailesh A. Shah for his excellent guidance, critical supervision, keen interest and continuous encouragement throughout this study. His active guidance helped me to develop skills and insight in the research and scientific presentation.

My research for this dissertation was made not only more efficient but also much more extensive through the use of several electronic resources. Thus I gladly express my gratitude to Prof. Dinesh R. Shah, Provost, Uka Tarsadia University and Management of Bardoli Pradesh Kelavani Mandal for providing necessary facilities for this work.

I express my heartiest thanks to Prof. K R. Desai, Head, Department of Chemistry, Uka Tarsadia University for providing me guidance, encouragement, invaluable advice and moral support during the course of this work.

My warm thanks are due to Prof. Abhay Dharamsi, Head, Pharmaceutics Department for their helpful suggestions.

Also, I am thankful to Dr. Ashish D. Mishra, Head, Pharmaceutical Chemistry Department, Maliba Pharmacy College, for his timely guidance and expert advice in research and thesis writing.
I am equally grateful to Dr. Bhavin. A. Vyas, friend and HOD, Pharmacology Department, for his timely support with innovative ideas and helping me avail the present job and enroll for the PhD course.

I am heartily obliged to friend, philosopher and guide, Gajanan for his constant support during research work and Shrikant for his untiring help in docking studies and thesis writing. They have always encouraged, criticized and supported me in my project. I found them always with me, whenever I was stuck somewhere. Their support and confidence in me has helped me immensely in my difficult time.

I would like to express my debt of gratitude to Mr. Kunjan Bodiwala, Dr. Bhavin Marolia and Dr. Renu Chauhan for their help in analytical work; Dr. Paras Patel for his technical help during thesis writing.

I extend a special thanks to Dr. Dhanji Rajani, Microcare Laboratory pvt. Ltd, Surat, for carrying out antimicrobial activity

I am also thankful to my friends and colleagues Ketan Ranch, Akshay Koli, Vilas Surana, Bhavik Satani, Pintu Prajapati, Ritesh Shah, Payal Shah, Hetal Patel, Pranav Shah, Furqan Maulvi, Sanjay Tiwari, Arti Gupta, Sonia Pandey, Praful Dedhiya, Vivek Patel, Pratik Tailor, Janki Desai, Meena Purohit, Heta Vyas, Ankita Patel and Josana Panchal for their constant support and timely help.

I would like to thank Kishorebhai, Vijaybhai, and all lab assistants for their help in laboratory. I would also like to thank Mr. Kavit Patel, who helped me in carrying out literature survey.

How can I forget to mention Manoj Jain, Pravin Patil and Prasad Gorde who constantly heartened me by helping out in experimentation and scientific writing. I must appreciate their joyful spirit that has provided me assistance and encouragement making work easier and enjoyable.
I take this opportunity to express the profound gratitude from my deep heart to my loved Parents, my dear sisters Shraddha and Sapna, my uncle Dr. Sudarshan Jain and my In-Laws for their love and continuous support – both spiritually and materially.

My heartfelt thanks to my loving, supportive, encouraging, and patient wife Harsha, whose faithful support throughout PhD made my journey smooth and fruitful.

No words would suffice to express my deep rooted feeling of thankfulness to my daughter Dhanvi, whose patience was tested to the utmost by long period separation. None would understand this, as much, as I do, that without her loving support, patience, sacrifice, forbearance and endurance, this study would have ever seen the light of the day.

Besides this, I am thankful to all those who have directly and indirectly helped me in the successful completion of this project.

Finally, I thank the almighty for giving me strength, inspiration and positive energy to complete my research work.
