Acknowledgements

Thank you is a very small word to acknowledge all the support and encouragement I have received from all the persons involved in shaping me whatever I am today.

Words would be inadequate to express the magnanimous generosity of my dearest supervisor, Dr. C. Nath, Head, Division of Toxicology, CSIR-CDRI, Lucknow, who has nurtured and molded me during my research life into an independent worker. It is due to his deft and patient steering of bench work, patronage and keen interest in all my endeavors that I could feel the fabulous experience of research life. His beguiling suggestions and scientific temperament were of great help, which motivated me to learn more and develop intensive logical reasoning. His suggestions will remain with me as an inexhaustible source of scientific learning throughout my life. I feel greatly indebted and proud to have done my work under him, who always strives for perfection in his work.

I am highly thankful to my Co-supervisor Dr. A. K. Najmi, Asst. Professor, Faculty of Pharmacy, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi, for his support, guidance and constant engorgement.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Kashif Hanif, Scientist, Division of Pharmacology, CSIR-CDRI, Lucknow. I always remember your ever helping nature ad patience and keen interest you have shown in all my efforts. I owe you a lot of gratitude for showing me the way of research.

I am highly obliged to Dr. Madhu Dikshit, Dr. Rakesh Shukla Dr. Gautam Palit, Dr. K. K. Pillai and Dr. G. K. Jain for their support, constant encouragements and ever helping mentality. Their help at many crucial junctures was great and need special mention. I would not have completed anything without their help and support.

I am also thankful to Mr. Bharati, Mr. G. P. Singh, Mr. Verma Mrs. Jharna and Mrs. Joshi for their ever helping nature.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to my friends Gunjan, Sachi, Pradeep, Subhash Ruby, Manoj, Rajshekar, Supriya, Vikas, Raj, Prem, Kuldeep, Deepak, Prashant, Rishi, Deepu and Divya for having been extremely supportive throughout the tenure.

I am highly thankful to my wonderful friends Shilu, Himani, Shakti, Komal, Pankaj, Shrikant, Ajay, Shitu, Banti, Mittu and Wahajuddin who made my Ph.D programme here memorable.
My earnest thanks to Dr. T. K. Chakraborty, Director CDRI for his constant encouragement and providing all the facilities for this work.

I sincerely acknowledge the financial support provided by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research by awarding Fellowship to me during this project which enabled me to carry out my work smoothly.

Some people become special and render their help and support, which can never be foreseen, I owe my heartfelt thanks to my dear wife Swathi.

I recall with gratitude the affectionate help, endless encouragement and constant support of my brother, Mother, Father and Mother-in-law. Their love, understanding, care, and blessings at all junctures have encouraged me wholeheartedly to pursue my research life.

I am also thankful to Pramod, Radhika and Suresh for their moral support.

Last but not the least I owe all the credit of my work to the silent sacrifice of those animals I used and will be using in future.

Finally, I pay my devoted thanks to the Sarvashaktiman Shri Parameshwar for giving me the strength and favorable circumstances to make this accomplishment.
