ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It gives me an immense pleasure and pride to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. T. Gurubasappa, Associate Professor, Head & Research Guide Post Graduate Dept. of Economics Government College, Gulbarga or his timely suggestions and constant encouragement throughout the preparation of this thesis.

First and foremost I want to express sincere gratitude to my Madam Prof. Chaya Degaonkar, Professor and Chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Economics, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga for her valuable, excellent guidance and stimulating discussion, everlasting encouragement and willingness to assist me in getting contact with important research participants and with some of her research material which proved very relevant within the frame of this study. She provided me with essential information, critical assistance and shared her immense knowledge and competence.

In addition, I wish to give thanks to Dr. Vasudev H Sedam, Professor, Department of Economics, Gulbarga University Gulbarga, for their keen interest throughout the course of this research work which led me to the completion of my thesis work. Furthermore, it is of utmost important to thank Research Scholars, Department of Economics, GUG, for all help and essential information. And also all my informants, teachers, activists, officials, friends & relatives - without whose contribution this investigation would not have been feasible.

With deep sense of gratitude, I acknowledge my beloved family, father, mother, brothers and sisters for their love and affection, good wishes and encouragement.

Finally, I place on record my immense thanks to Divya Graphics DTP Centre for their neat computer work in preparing this thesis.
