ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis wouldn’t have been completed without the support, encouragement and contributions of many people around me. What I will be writing below are just words put in coherent manner to best explain the support that they have given me towards the completion of my thesis.

At first I express my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my thesis supervisor Prof. Parthasarathi Majumdar for providing his sincere help and guidance during the entire period of my research. He has always motivated me and incessantly encouraged me to pursue my own line of thinking. I am grateful to him for his patience and boosting my confidence from time to time.

I then extend my gratitude to Dr. Ayan Chatterjee who helped me a lot throughout my research days at SINP. I am grateful to him for collaborating with me and also involving in numerous scientific discussions.

Next, I must acknowledge the guidance and teaching of Prof. Amit Ghosh, which helped me a lot to develop my understanding of the subject. I was fortunate enough to discuss various physics issues with him which influenced my way of thinking.

I would like to express my warm and sincere thanks to my teachers who have inspired me to pursue a research career. I convey my sincere gratitude to Prof. Narayan Banerjee and Prof. Soumendra K. Roy for supporting me with their invaluable suggestions. I consider myself lucky to have brilliant teachers at SINP from whom I could learn a lot during and after the Post M.Sc. course. Thanks to Prof. Palash Baran Pal, Prof. Pradeep K. Mohanty, Prof. Harindranath, Prof. Asit K. Dey, Prof. Krishnendu Sengupta, Prof. Goutam Bhattacharya, Prof. Parthasarathi Mitra, Prof. Shibaji Roy, Prof. Munsi Golam Mustafa. I also thank Prof. Kamales Kar, Prof. Pijushpani Bhattacharjee, Prof. Debades Bandyopadhyay and Prof. Debasish Majumdar for extending all kinds of help and support.
throughout my thesis work.

I also thank all the members of the Theory and Astroparticle Physics division of SINP for maintaining a cordial and comfortable working environment. I am sincerely thankful to Rana, Chandrachur, Soumini, Pratyay, Parijat, Pritibhajan, Lab, Avirup and Abhishek Majhi for their constant support and encouragements by maintaining an ambient atmosphere around my workplace. I also thank Rudranil, Oindrila, Parthapratim for being associated in many academic discussions with me. My thanks also to Sayan, Bhramar, Sovan, Jyotirmoy, , Kalyanbrata, Pulak, Tirthashankar, Sreerupa, Baishali, Abhik, Arindam, Najmul, Kamakshya, Goutam, Prashanta, Apurbo, Susmita, Santanu, Susnata, Raktim, Somdeb, Satyajit, Mainak, Abhishek, Anirban, Deabrata, Amit, Dipankar, Aminul, Anna and Richard for making the environment enjoyable.

I am also grateful to my classmates Parthasarathi, Soumya, Raka, Saugata, Anirban, Sarbani, Amit, Sanjoy, Abhisakh, Bishnu, Safiul, Nupur, Shryeoshi, Arindam, Suman for a youthful company and support.

I thank all the family members for their support to complete my thesis work. I wish to express my gratitude to my parents for their immense patience, love, affection, encouragements and support. I am indebted to them for giving me the freedom to choose my own career and for constantly providing me the moral support at every stage of my life. I must also admit constant encouragement from my cousin Arnab Chakraborty (Dadamoni) for pursuing fundamental research. Thanks are due to Debzani for giving me mental and emotional support.

Finally, I express my sincere gratitude to my grandfather Late Shri Dhirendranath Bhattacharya for his inspiration and encouragements all through my life.
