Acknowledgements

First and foremost I offer my sincerest gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Anita Bahadur. Her guidance, motivations, tireless aid and diligence suggestions really helped to accomplish this research work. Without her support, this work would not be possible. I am thankful to her more than she knows. I simply could not have wished for a better or friendlier supervisor. I do not find adequate words to express my gut feelings for my guiding teacher.

I would further like to thank Dr. G.C. Desai, I/c Principal, Dr. S.P. Kapadia, Dr. A.G. Mehta, ex-P. T. Sarvajanik College of Science and Dr. A.H. Dholakia Head of Zoology Department, for providing necessary facilities during the course of my research. I would also like to recognize the help provided by Dr. P. Bahadur for his invaluable advice, encouragement and contributions in adsorption studies.

Many thanks to all my colleagues and friends in the Department who made my research motivating. I can not forget the contribution of my friends and colleagues Nitin, Neelaben Rajyaguru, Dr. Neelam, Dr. Jagruti, Ankita, Paresh, Arpan and Suresh for their invaluable help in my research work. Special thanks are also to Drs. Debmallya Mandal and Ramila Mandal for their support and suggestions. All the nonteaching staff members, Late shri Maganbhai, Dolatbhai, Ravjibhai, Rohit and Jignesh are also well acknowledged for their help whenever I needed. I warmly thank Bindu, Ashokbhai, Amitbhai and all staff of Valod fish farm for providing me the fingerlings. The help and support by Prashant and Sushant, is gratefully acknowledged.

In the end, my gratitude to my family and siblings for their patience, support and for keeping me away from the day to day hassles. Finally, I have no words to appreciate my husband Mahendra and my son Jay who shouldered my domestic difficulties during my work. Without their enthusiasm, inspiration and devotion this dissertation would not have been completed.

Jaya M. Patel

Date: Asstt. Professor (Zoology)