ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

From the voice of my conscience soul, I would like to thank the “Almighty God” who bestowed me with their blessings to accomplish this investigation sincerely, elaborately and timely.

I consider it my great fortune to have an opportunity to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks towards my Guide Dr. Shantilal K. Tank, Professor, Department of Biosciences, Veer Narmad South Gujarat University, Surat; who helped me with his suggestions regarding the thesis. He remained a constant source of inspiration with his through Knowledge. It was a great privilege and experience working with him. Though he had a very tight schedule, he spared some time for my work and discussion. He has been a wonderful guide and teacher not only in the field environmental science but has encouraged me to work hard and also I learnt from him and his life style. Dr. Tank has been very kind enough to accept me as a student for this dissertation work and inspired me with his untiring exertion, profound love and sympathy, so as I succeeded in doing what was expected from me.

I do not have enough words to thanks Mr. Tatyasaheb Motilal Patil, Chairman of S.T. Co-operative Education Society, Shahada who gave me permission and full support for this research work. Principal and all the members of society help me to carry out the present study so I am very thankful to them.

It is my great privilege to pay my regards and thanks to Head of the Department of Biosciences Prof. P. K. Gadhia forever helping hand and providing necessary facilities to carry out the present study.

I would like to acknowledge and pay my regard with thanks to Mr. Pramod Birari for his co-operation, guidance and invaluable suggestions throughout my work. I sincerely thank to Mr. P. P. Talele and Ms Jayashri Deshmukh, who shown deep concern and always inspired me. Their valued support, encouragement and warmness made my path and possible success.

I am greatful to extend my sincere appreciation to Sunil Bhavsar for his sympathetic approach and statistical analysis.
I shall fail in my duties if I do not thank all staff members of Department of Biosciences who contributed in innumerable ways for helping in my work.

I have no words to express my gratitude to my mother Pramila K. Mahajan, loving son Yogeshwar, sister Rajani, brother in law Mr. G. J. Khirnar, my brothers Rajesh Mahajan, Satish mahajan and my nephews Mayur and Harish Khirnar for their love, encouragement and for looking after my comforts in all adversities.

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge the exceedingly helpful cooperation of my friend Dr. Jigna Desai.

Last but not the least I would like to thank all my friends and relatives whose names I could not mention, for their constant encouragement.

Needless to say, all errors and omissions are mine……
