ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

No work can be realized and completed in isolation. The present academic venture of mine too is not an exception in this regard. There are many who have helped me, and encouraged me directly or indirectly in the completion of this work. It is my proud privilege to mention with deep sense of gratitude those who have assisted, motivated, inspired, and blessed me during the course of this academic achievement.

At the very outset, I thank the Almighty God that I have had the opportunity to work under the supervision of Dr. Prabhat Mathur, Dept. of English, M. M. H. (PG) College, Ghaziabad. He is not only my supervisor but also beacon to my life in every possible way. I am indebted in a very big way to him for his guidance, motivation, and inspiration, which helped me to carry out this research work to a logical conclusion. I owe everything to Dr. Mathur for his invaluable supervision.

I acknowledge my regard to Prof. S. D. Sharma, Retd. Professor, Pantnagar University, Pantnagar and Dr. Deepali Sharma, Lecturer, Dept. of English, Amity University, Greater Noida, for their sympathetic response to carry out this research work.

I am obliged to the British Counsel, Delhi, British Counsel Hyderabad, Library and Staff of Rajasthan University, Library of Pantnagar University, Pantnagar for providing me the valuable books and material on George Gissing to complete my research work.

At last but not least I fondly remember my father Mr. Ashok Tyagi, my mother Smt. Poonam Tyagi and my uncle Mr. Sunil Tyagi. I also remember my father in law Mr. Rajendra Tyagi, my mother in law Smt. Lokesh Tyagi and brother in law Mr. Ramneek Tyagi for everything I have had till today. At this hour, I affectionately acknowledge the support of my husband Mr. Ranjnish Tyagi and my son Krishna Tyagi. I may be beaten in the play of words but not in my love and affection for them.

(Rupa Tyagi)
