ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As I have come to the end of this research work, in its present format, I am conscious of my obligations to persons who have made contribution to the present work in some form or other. While it is humanly not possible to acknowledge all of them, or any of them adequately, still I consider it my privilege and foremost duty to record here my sense of indebtedness at least to some of them.

To mention the foremost is my research supervisor Professor P. R. Agrawal, Former Head of the Department of Business Management and Dean, Faculty of Management Studies, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar, and currently Chair person at School of Business Management, Motilal Nehru Regional Engineering College, Allahabad, who has kindly consented to guide the present work and provided able guidance thereafter. It is his keen interest in the work, encouragement and academic support to the candidate at every stage, which resulted into this end product. Words are not perhaps adequate enough to express my gratitude to him.

I am also highly grateful to Dr. Y. S. Thakur, Head, Department of Business Management, Dr. H. S. Gour University, Sagar for his constant encouragement and keen interest in the work. Not only this, he has kindly extended me all the possible administrative facilities at his command to carryout the present work. These words are mere expression of my heart-felt gratitude to him. My principal Dr. Raghveer Singh, at Mody College of Management Studies, MIER, Lakshmangarh, Sikar, Rajasthan, where currently I am serving as Lecturer provided me needed facilities and encouragement to complete the present research work. I am very much grateful to him for his kind gesture.

I have availed Junior Research Fellowship (NET/JRF) from University Grant Commission, New Delhi, between 1998-2001 for the present research work. I acknowledge with thanks the U.G.C. for providing me fellowship for the research work.

During the course of research work, I have visited various institutions and received utmost help and courtesy from the professionals, librarians and other functionaries there I am grateful to professor Thiripalraju, Economic Advisor, Security and Exchange Board of India and Ms. Phalguni Mistry, National Stock Exchange, Mumbai for their kind help. I also put on record my sincere thanks to Sh. R.C. Aggarwal, Librarian of Indian Institute of Finance, Delhi, Sh. N.J. Sebastin, Chief Librarian and Sh. S. Siva Chidambaram, Asstt. Librarian of National Council of Applied Economic Research, New Delhi-02 The librarians at IIM Ahmadabad, Reserve Bank of India, ICSSR, UTI, JNU Library, Sagar and incharge of ICSSR Guest House Kurla deserve my special thanks for their kind help.

At the Department of Business Management Sagar University I am thankful to Dr. K.K. Majji, Sh. Ashish Bajpai and Sh. Tanuj Nandam, faculty members for their cooperation. I am also thankful to Sh. K.L. Patel, Sh. Yadav, Sh. Rewa Ram, Sh. Dinesh Sain, Sh. Dushyant Namdeo, Sh. Deepak Mishra and all the other employees of the Department for their helping hand whenever required so.

Dr. S.N. Limaye (and Mrs. Limaye), Reader, Department of Chemistry provided me voluntary logistic help whenever I needed it. I express my affectionate respect for their care and concern. My friends Prashant Mishra, Kailash Narayan, Harish Nayar, Pankaj Prasad and Ratnesh Das deserve special thanks for their good wishes.

Blessings of my grandmother and good wishes of my parents, wife and younger brother remained a source of strength and motivation to me. I appreciate their sentiments. In the last but not the least it is the Grace of the God, which has shown the light of the day. I offer my prayers to the All Mighty.

Sagar
Dated

( Kamal Vagrecha )