ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost praise to the Almighty, merciful compassionate and God ever-loving for all what He has done, He is doing and will continue to do in my life. Not forgetting His presence, protection and solutions whenever I call to Him in my distress and who is the source of all revealed guidance to mankind.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my research supervisor Dr. R. Radhakrishnan Nair, Associate Professor, Department of Zoology, S.T.Hindu College, Nagercoil, for his scholarly guidance, invaluable suggestions and painstaking supervision of my research work till the completion of my work.

I am equally thankful and grateful to my Co-guide Dr. S. Sam Manohar Das, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Zoology, Scott Christian College (Autonomous), Nagercoil, for his constant guidance, extensive help and coherent efforts in terms of regular advice and encouragement which led to the fruitful conclusion of this work.

I extend my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. M. Jezer Jebanesan, Principal, Scott Christian College (Autonomous), Nagercoil for his constant encouragement and permitting me to use the facilities of the college.

I wish to convey my special thanks to Dr. S. Godwin Wesley, Emeritus Professor in Zoology, Scott Christian College (Autonomous), Nagercoil for his help and encouragement, keeping open his BRNS laboratory for my use.
