Chapter - I

Introduction ......................................................................... 1 - 11
1.1. The statement of problem and research questions .......... 05
1.2. Research Gap ............................................................ 07
1.3. Objectives of study ..................................................... 08
1.4. Hypothesis ............................................................... 08
1.5. Data Source ............................................................. 09
1.6. Limitation of the Study .............................................. 10
1.7. Summery ................................................................. 11

Chapter - II

Theoretical Background and review of literature .................. 12 - 53
2.1. The Foundations of the Gravity Model ......................... 12
2.1.1. Theoretical Underpinnings of the Gravity Model ....... 16
2.1.2. Theoretical Underpinnings of the Import demand function 22
2.2. Related Literature and the Commodity Specific Gravity Model .... 24
2.3. Related literature of the demand import function ........... 45
2.4. Summary ............................................................... 53
Chapter III:

Theoretical and Background of Trade Policies 54 - 80

3.1. Regional and bilateral Trade 54
   3.1.2. Bilateral and regional trade agreement of Iran 56

3.2. Policies of European countries Trade 57
   3.2.1. Introduction 57
   3.2.2. Agriculture Trade policies of European countries 59

3.3. Agricultural trade policies of member countries of EU 61
   3.3.1. Germany 61
   3.3.2. England 63
   3.3.3. France 64
   3.3.4. Italy 65
      3.3.4.1. Customs Regulation 65
      3.3.4.2. Standards 66
   3.3.5. Netherlands 66

3.4. Agricultural Trade Policies of Iran 67
   3.4.1. Introduction 67
   3.4.2. Trade policies 68

3.5. Agriculture Trade Policies between Iran and EU 69
   3.5.1. Introduction 69
   3.5.2. A review of trade relations between Iran and European Union 70
   3.5.3 Trade agreement between Iran and EU 73
      3.5.3.1. Challenges and economic consideration 73
      3.5.3.2. The main precondition and approaches of the European Union to develop relations with Iran 74
         3.5.3.2.1 Preconditions 74
         3.5.3.2.2 Approaches 75
   3.5.4. Primary Product trade of Iran and EU member countries 76

3.6. Compared value of Trade agricultural product between Iran and countries member of EU 79
Chapter IV: Methodology

4.1. Introduction 81
4.1.1. Basic Gravity model 82
4.1.2. Augmented Gravity Model 82
4.1.3. The Application of the Gravity Model in International Trade Flow Analysis 83

4.2. Specification of gravity equation for the study 85
4.2.1. Export Model 86
4.2.2. The explanatory variables in the gravity model 86

4.3. Methods to Estimate panel Data 88
4.3.1. Pooled Ordinary Least Squares (POLs) 88
4.3.2. WithinEstimator and Random Estimator (FEM and REM) 88
4.3.3. Demand function of Import 90

Chapter V

An Empirical Analysis of Export Trade Between Iran & European Union 91-111

5.1. Introduction 91
5.2. Unit Rate Tests 92
5.3. Auto correlation test 94
5.4. Specific Ramsey test 94
5.5. Results and Discussion 95
5.5.1. Results and Discussion of Five Countries Member Eu 99
5.5.2. Comparison among the three models (pool, fixed and random) 101
5.5.3. Estimates of Potential Trade 108
5.6. Results of Import Demand Function of countries member of EU from Iran 110
Chapter VI

Findings, Suggestions and Conclusion

6.1. Finding
   6.1.1 Findings of export model
   6.1.2 The finding of Export Model with use of time series data analysis for some member countries of EU
   6.1.3 The finding of Export Model with use of time series data analysis for some member countries of EU

6.2. Suggestions

6.2. Conclusion
