1. (A) Unpublished works:

   The investigation is essentially based on the under mentioned political and secret department series, dairies of former officials of East India Company (Bombay Council), Basra Resident Dairies, Tellicherry Factory Records, Malabar Commissioner’s Reports, Baghdad Residency Correspondence, Foreign and Secret Department Consultations
(National Archives of India), Proceedings of Fort St. George (Madras), Mysore Residency Correspondence, Dispatches and Minutes of East India Company (London), Persian Correspondence Series (National Archives of India) and Fort William India House Correspondence (National Archives of India). Comments and Memoranda on these documents by foreign and Indian statesmen throw interesting light on South India – Persian Gulf relations during Haider Ali and Tipu Sultan.

   These publications are useful aids for any investigation on South India – Persian Gulf relations. Particular mention could be made of Gazetteer of the Persian Gulf, Oman, and Central Arabia; Gazetteer of Sindh; Gazetteer of Bombay Province; Mysore Gazetteer; Secret and Political Correspondence of Tipu Sultan; Select Letters of Tipu Sultan; Waqai – Manzil-i-Rum; Malcom’s Reports on Persian Gulf; Henry Lovett’s Reports on Tipu’s Factories at Cutch and Muscat; Goddard Mission on Persian Gulf; Macanz[i]’s Collections on Haider Ali and Tipu Sultan; Boris Crisp’s The Mysorean Revenue Regulations; Buchanan’s Travel Reports etc. are the best printed Primary sources available to the researcher on South India – Persian Gulf relations during Haider Ali and Tipu Sultan.
