ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my deepest sense of gratitude and indebtedness to my Supervisor, Prof. H.N. Bhargava, M.Sc., Ph.D. (Saug.), Ph.D. (London), F.N.A., Sc., whose indomitable researching mind of vast erudition with sagacity and wisdom guided me along the right path whenever I knowingly or unknowingly faltered from the right course of my research work. My discrete and discriminate approach to the problem of my research topic is the result of the encouragement incited in me by his deep insight into the problem. Pursuant to his timely criticisms in pursuit of my research pursuance my work could reach the present state of its perfection. My gratefulness is always due to him.

My profound thanks are for Prof. B.K. Srivastava, Head, Dept. Zoology, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (M.P.), for providing me with all the facilities at an academic level and creating a congenial and peaceful atmosphere essential to a work of research at a personal and official level which helped me invaluably in putting my head together especially at a time when it was most needed during the stage of my writing this thesis.

I express my gratitude to Dr. A.K. Raisada, Reader, Dept. Zoology, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for the help unhesitatingly extended to me without any reservation during my research tenure. My deep sense of thankfulness is also due to Late Shri S.K. Srivas, Lecturer, Dept. Zoology, Govt.P.G. College, Betul, who has been of great help to me as a beginner in research.

It gives me the greatest of pleasure to remember with gratitude my father Shri V. Raghavan and mother Smt. C. Manubhau, for insisting upon me to join research and keeping my morale consistently high throughout my research work.

I am very much thankful to my colleague, Ku. Mini Kuruvilla, JRF (UGC), Dept. of Zoology, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar for helping me with the various types of works related to the compilation of my thesis.

I gratefully acknowledge the award of a Junior Research Fellowship for the first two years and then a Senior Research Fellowship for the next two years of my research tenure by the UGC, New Delhi.

Lastly, without mitigating the due importance to be given to the neat typewriting and photocopying of the tables and figures of my thesis, the no unimportant job of M/S Deousker, Sagar is very gratefully acknowledged by me.

Sagar,
31st July 1989
