ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Endless amounts of gratitude and appreciation are owed to a number of people, without whom this thesis would not have been fully realized. Words are often too weak to express one’s inner feeling of indebtedness to one’s benefactors. The same difficulty haunts me in penning down my deep sense of gratitude.

First of all, with all my humility and sincerity, I bow before the ‘Almighty’, who puts strength in me to do and accomplish the research work.

Next to God, I express my sincere and profound gratitude to my guide, Dr. Sushil Kumar, Professor, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, for his constant, scholarly and inspiring guidance, encouraging attitude, enthusiastic spirit, invaluable suggestions throughout the course of my venture, for completion of this investigation. I consider myself very fortunate to have pursued this arduous research work under his guidance.

My heartfelt regard goes to Prof. (Dr.) R. Yadav, Chairman, Department of Education, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra for his cooperation, advice valuable suggestions and timely help. My whole-hearted gratitude goes to Dr. Khushvinder Kumar, Principal, B.C.M. College of Education, for his cooperation, advice and perpetual encouragement and my colleagues for their forthcoming support and help in data collection, without which it would have been difficult to complete this splendid task.
I am also sincerely thankful to the Principals and teachers of different schools for their help and cooperation in collecting data for this study. My sincere gratitude to those authors also whose works and names I have consulted and quoted in my thesis. I am equally thankful to the personnel of the libraries to which I went for studying the literature relevant to my work.

I specially express my feelings and appreciation to my parents and in-laws, specially my father, late S. Joginder Singh Anand, who taught me to dream and achieve and gave me roots of responsibility and wings of independence. I would also like to express here, my loving thanks to my sister, my brother and relatives, whom I always found cherishing the desire to see me rise.

The support of my family has proven equally priceless. My vocabulary fails to express my gratitude to my husband, Rajinder Singh for his constant care, persistent encouragement and untiring support throughout the period of research. My heart thanks my daughter, Ishneet Kaur and my son, Pravneet Singh, for their encouraging smile that keeps my spirit high, and for extending their incessant deep understanding and love throughout the project.

All names cannot be mentioned, but no one is forgotten. By these words, I remember all the persons who have helped me reach the end of this research undertaking.

(Manminder Kaur)