This life is a game and in order to play it skilfully and successfully one has to work with a team with complete devotion and due respect to all those people or the spirits who help directly or indirectly in achieving the desired goal. So far, in my life, I have been quite lucky as I have been accompanied, guided and helped by many people. Now, I am extremely happy as I have got a very good opportunity to express my sincere gratitude for all of them.

My very sincere thanks go to my supervisor; Dr. K. K. Kathuria, Professor, Department of English, Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra, for his sincere guidance, ungrudging help, providing necessary facilities and his parents like concernedness. I am really very fortunate to have a guide and mentor like Dr. Kathuria who kept inspiring and encouraging me during the entire course of this research.

Life may be a gift from the Almighty, but without parents it can neither be possible nor be meaningful. I am heartily thankful to my mother Late Smt. Pista Devi and my father Sh. Devkaran who dreamt of well educated, sound minded, ideal and ablest children and who, despite having limited resources, devoted their best to fulfil their dream. They recognized my academic ability and painstakingly kept extending their support on all grounds. I dedicate this work to my beloved parents.

There are certain other distinguished friends, relatives, and colleagues whose sincere help made this difficult task possible. I would like to express my gratitude to my cousin Dr. Hukam Singh whose life is an example and inspiration to me. I am specially thankful to my better half Mrs. Sushila Rani who is really the woman behind this success and who sacrificed her happiness and enjoyable moments for the sake of support to me. My younger brothers and to all my friends and well wishers also deserve a special thank as they helped me in proving good supportive atmosphere needed for this success. Prajna and Aryavart our children deserve endless love and affection as they not only helped me in typing the manuscripts of this thesis but also gave me all the time need to complete this study.

My final thanks go to the Almighty, "The Divine Mover" and "My Lord Master Designer" for blessing me with this wonderful life with favourable atmosphere, angelic teachers, faithful friends, devoted wife, obedient and lovely kids, cooperative and concerned colleagues and above all the ability to recognize and follow the right path. It was just because of his grace that I could get the chance of being in the present situation which really proved to be helpful in completing this work.
