Acknowledgments

First of all I would like to express my deepest sense of gratitude and sincere thanks to my supervisor Prof. A. S. V. Ravi Kanth, for his invaluable guidance, continuous encouragement and willingness to discuss the topic at many odd hours throughout the course of this work. Prof. Ravi Kanth advice on the choice of the research topic and fantastic opportunity to pursue my Ph. D. at the VIT University are invaluable for my career. I thank him for his care and practical advice in several aspects of my life. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to Mrs. Suneetha Ravi Kanth for her inspiring discussions and moral support.

For very useful discussions and feedback on my research, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to my external and internal Doctoral committee members, Prof. Y. N. Reddy, NIT Warangal, Prof. Ch. Srinivasa Rao, IIT Chennai, Prof. V. M. Chandrasekaran, Dean, SAS and Prof. Jagan Mohan Jonnalagadda, VIT University, Vellore for the valuable advice and the generous support that has been instrumental to the completion of this thesis.

I owe my deepest gratitude to my grandparents, uncles and aunties for their love, encouragement and moral support to take the challenges. Without their help I would never have made it.

The blessings of my parents and good wishes of my brother have been an invaluable source of inspiration for me.

Finally, I would be remiss without mentioning my thanks to all my friends for their constant support.

To each of the above, I extend my deepest appreciation.
