LIST OF FIGURES

FIG:  PAGE

1.1  Diagram showing kin terms relationship of bilateral cross-cousin rules  20
1.2  Common pattern of Purum indirect exchange  29
1.3  Map of Manipur showing field sites (in red colour)  55
1.4  The Meitei chieftoms in the valley of Manipur  58
1.5  Tribute of Loi to Maharaja (based on J.C. Higgins, Vice President, Manipur State Darbar by taking source from Palace Pandit—1926  69
2.1  Map of Kangla showing the site of emergence for the seven clans. A. Enlarged portion of the same map (site of emergence—enclosed by red colour dotted lines)  79
2.2  Movement of early Meitei settlers in the valley of Manipur  80
2.3  Totemic Paphals for Meitei clans and Javista Pakhangba  81
2.4  The horned serpent called Taoroinai: steed of Leinung Lonja Pakhangba and Gurdian of Meitei palace  82
2.5  Map of the valley of Manipur: Seven clans and their focal places  85
2.6  Relation among Angom, Ningthouja and Luwang  88
2.7  Relation between Luwang and Khuman  89
2.8  Moirang genealogy  90
2.9  G.T. of Khaba and Nganba  91
2.10 G.T. of Chenglei Sarang Letsangthem  93
2.11. Clan and Taboo of the Meitei
2.12 Swords of seven clans
2.13 G.T. of Nambul Taba segment of Mutum Lineage showing the Phunga Punba core by dotted lines
3.1 Kinship terminology notation
3.2 Meitei terms denoting line of descent
3.3 Pairs of kin terms in the Meitei kinship system
3.4 Affinal terms through husband and wife
3.5 Double unilineal system from cross cousin marriage
3.6 Global taxonomy of kinship terminology
4.1 Occurrence of itei-inao terms when ego is i) male and ii) female
4.2 A case of FZD at Sekmai
4.3 Indirect MBD marriage norm that exists at Kakching
4.4 Distribution of lineages in Pana system
4.5 Deities and lineages relation in Andro culture
4.6 G.T. of two MBD cases at Andro
4.7 First FZD marriage case at Andro
4.8 Second FZD marriage case at Andro
4.9 Some cases of sister exchange from Andro
4.10 Lineage and Maksai inter-relationship prevailing at Andro
4.11 Genealogical schematisation of cross-cousin marriage
4.12 Kin terms through cross-cousin marriage between Angom and Mangang
5.1 The Meitei scheme of yekl gotra correspondence

5.2 Sairuk tinnaba

5.3 Diagram showing the Sairuk tinnaba relation between Ningthouja clan and a) Mungyangjam and b) Loirenjam

5.4 Leinung Pen tinnaba of Khaba and Nganba sub clans of the same clan

5.5 Pen tinnaba

5.6 Marriage rule in relation to Pen tinnaba

5.7 Genealogical chart showing Ee-mungnaba

5.8 Illustration of Pitribandhu (P=Pitribandhu)

5.9 Marriage rule in relation to P_6

5.10 Marriage rule in relation to P_3 and P_5

5.11 Marriage rules of father’s mother’s sister’s son

5.12 Illustration showing Matribandhu

5.13 Marriage rule in relation to Matribandhu-MFZS

5.14 Marriage rule in relation to Matribandhu-MMBS

5.15 Marriageability tie with Matribandhu’s step mother’s daughter

5.16 Marriage rule regarding MF descent

5.17 Step mother’s brother’s daughter’s status for affinal tie

5.18 Marital rule regarding father’s sister’s step daughter

5.19 Marriage and Gotra separation rule

5.20 G.T. showing polygamy: wives related as aunt and niece
6.1 Terms for kin types in parents’ and children’s generations 204

6.2 Diagram showing genealogical kin types merged terminologically, all suggesting the practice of cross-cousin marriage (the speaker is a male ego) 205