Acknowledgement

With great pleasure I acknowledge my profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. S. Mangi Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Manipur University, without whose help and guidance my thesis would not have materialized. I also would like to thank all the teachers in the Department of Political Science for all the help and encouragement they have given to me during the course of my research work.

I am also deeply indebted to the Librarian and all the staff members of Manipur University Library for all the cooperation they have extended to me all the while. I am also greatly thankful to my well wishers and colleagues Dr. Sh. Simreingam, Dr. Ng. Mataisang, S. Ramakanta Singh and M. Chandra Singh for all the help they so readily extended to me while collecting materials for my research and also for all the encouragements they gave to me.

I am also grateful to my uncle, Dr. Ak. Khamba Singh, Deputy Director, Manipur AIDS Control Society, and my aunt Ak. (O) Memchoubi Devi, Selection Grade Lecturer, Manipur College, for all the moral support they have extended to me during the course of my research work.
I am also extremely grateful to Mr. Ng. Somorjit Singh and Mr. L. Shanjit Singh for typing not only the final thesis but also the drafts of my thesis with utmost care and patience.

Finally, I also would like to put on record here my heart felt gratitude to my husband L. Jadumani Singh, Lecturer, Pettigrew College, Ukhrul, for all the encouragement, and help he has given at each and every stage of my research work and also for all the sacrifices he has made so that I may pursue my academic pursuits.
