ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This work would never have seen the light of the day without my Supervisor Dr. Dhanabir Laishram, Department of Political Science, Manipur University. His kindness, patience and sense of humour have been a great source of strength and encouragement to me. It is through his support and cooperation that I am able to complete this work in time. I am deeply indebted to him.

I am also grateful to the staff of the Department of Political Science, Manipur University, especially Professor K Ibo Singh, Head of the Department and Professor S Mangi Singh for the suggestions and intellectual inputs contributed to me during the course of my research work.

I am extremely thankful to Professor Salam Irene, Department of History, Manipur University, for her valuable suggestions and help rendered to me. I express my sincere and heartfelt indebtedness to her.

My sincere thanks to Mr. Benjamin Nattar, Senior Lecturer, Department of Political Science, Manipur College and H. Poji for the help and assistance extended to me. Their cooperation has helped me to complete this work.
My sincere thanks are due to the authorities and staff of the libraries of Manipur University, State Central Library, Imphal, Tribal Research Institute, Imphal, Don Bosco College, Maram, Patkai Christian College, Dimapur and Manipur State Archive for their co-operation and help in the collection of materials required for my work. Special thanks to the staff of District Information Office, Senapati for providing me necessary and relevant information required for my research work.

I also acknowledge my thanks to B. Daniel, Finance Secretary, Mao Baptist Churches Association (MBCA) for his encouragement and for providing me materials for this study.

I am greatly indebted to UGC for giving me financial assistance to meet the research expenses.

My humble venture into this research work has been possible because of the respondents who answered a wide variety of my questions patiently. I am grateful especially to N. Salew, Writer, Athikho Kaisii, Headman, Makhan Centre Village and Kapani Adani, Village Elder, Makhan Khullen for sharing their invaluable knowledge.
My special thanks to all my friends and colleagues for their constant encouragement and support. I also thank Mansingh Khangembam for the computer works.

Most of all I owe a special debt to my parents, brothers and sisters for supporting and encouraging me to pursue this degree. Without them my work wouldn’t have seen the light of the day. They have been a great source of strength and inspiration to me.

Above all I am thankful to Almighty God for all the blessings He has showered on me.

Adakho Poji K
