Acknowledgement

Doctoral research needs constant encouragement and continuous guidance for successful completion.

At the outset, I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. S. Mangi Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Manipur University for all encouragement and guidance he has given to me in course of my research work. The care, concern and patience he had shown towards me while supervising me in research work have always spurred me to work very hard so that I may succeed in completing my work. Without his able guidance and ungrudging help, it would not have been possible for me to complete this study.

I am also grateful to Project Officer of the DRDA, Thoubal District and officials of Monitoring Cell of Rural Development and Panchayati Raj, Government of Manipur for all the help and cooperation they have given to me while collecting relevant information from their respective offices. My thanks are also due to the officials of the DRDA Thoubal
District who have extended every possible towards me at various stages of my research work.

I am also greatly thankful to my colleagues in the State Institute of Rural Development for the kind and sympathetic assistance they have given to me while completing the study. Thanks are also due to library staff of State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD) and Manipur University, Canchipur.

Last but not the least, I would like my sincere thanks to the sampled respondents who have spared lots of their valuable time responding wholeheartedly to my queries. Without their responses, it would not have been possible to carry out the present work.
