Acknowledgement

With great sincerity, I acknowledge my profound gratitude to my Supervisor, Prof. Ratna Tikoo, Department of Political Science, Manipur University, who, right from the moment she took on as a research scholar under her, assumed the role of a hard to please task master, forever egging me on to put in that little more extra labour. For me, she has always been a source of inspirations, someone who always gave me as a patient hearing to my difficulties and problems, and encouraged me to come up with solutions. Needless to say this thesis would not have been possible without her untiring help and guidance. I am also grateful to all the faculty members of Department of Political Science, M.U. for their help and co-operation.

I would like to express my gratitude to Manipur University, Library, Central Library, Institute of Co-operative Management Library, and Manipur State Archives for giving me co-operation in consulting their books and journals in the library.
