ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. H.S.S. Bais, Ex-Professor of English, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar. I have, indeed, learnt the art of research and appreciating various nuances of literature from him. His scholarship and his love of literature kindled in me a desire to probe the bizarre Orwellian world.

I would like to record here my gratitude to Dr. A.K. Awasthi, Professor & Head, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for his valuable guidance, suggestions and constructive criticism. He has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement during the whole period of my study.

I am thankful to Late Prof. R.S. Pathak, Dr. C. Sengupta, Dr. Mrs. S. Sivaraman, Dr. Mrs. S. Sengupta, Late Dr. Sunil Kumar, Dr. N. Metreya, Dr. B. I. Guru, Prof. B. L. Dehariya, Prof. Prakash Khare, Prof. Harsha Chachane, Prof. A. K. Yadav and Prof. L. Kashiyia for their help and kindness. They spiritually strengthened me in every sphere of life and thus enabled me to widen my understanding of Orwell.

I am much obliged to the librarians of The British Council Delhi, Bombay and Bhopal and to the librarian, Dr. H.S. Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar. This study would not have been possible without the help of these libraries.

I am thankful to my colleague Dr. U.B.S. Gour for his kind help and constant encouragement for pursuing my study.

I would like to record my gratitude to my parents for their constant encouragement and financial help. My sincere thanks are also due to my wife Mrs. Pushpa Singh and my sons Harsh and Shivam who always gave me solace and encouragement in difficult times.

Finally, I would like to thank Dr. Naveen Gideon who helped me complete this thesis quickly and carefully.

(AMAR SINGH)